As freshman we came to Xavier young and naive, unaware of what would lie ahead in the epoch of four years. On orientation day, the seniors told us what to expect, helping us to prepare our ground. Although it may have appeared meaningless to our inexperienced minds, we had planted our seeds in the Xavier community. We began as individuals alone and apprehensive of our new environment. Our growth progressed slowly but, as we became more secure with our place at Xavier, we engaged in athletics and other activities. We also branched out to others and formed new relationships.

Graduation on June 1 marked the end of the epoch. Most seniors found it difficult to leave the institution in which they were so deeply rooted.

The year 1980 was an election year. In September we saw the debate between Anderson and Reagan, in which Carter refused to partake. The battle was at its height in October when Carter and Reagan debated on national television. On November 4, Ronald Reagan was elected President of the United States with 51 percent of the popular vote. The Republicans also picked up 33 House seats and gained a Senate majority.

The '80-'81 year was also a year marked with violence. We were grieved by the assassination attempts on the Pope and the President, and the assassination of John Lennon. "Assassination" is a term usually used to refer to the act of murdering a head of state. The death of John Lennon, however, killed the head of a state of mind. Lennon, the "brain" of the Beatles, defined the aspirations and frustrations of a generation who believed that "all you need is love."

The state mourned the death of its most loved and trusted governor, Ella Grasso. The first woman governor in our nation's history to be elected on her own right, she was a shrewd politician who won the hearts of many.

In January we let out a huge sigh of relief marking the end of the frustrating 444 day hostage ordeal for the 52 Americans in Iran. The country was scattered with yellow ribbons as we joyously welcomed the hostages home.

On March 6, millions of viewers who had faithfully tuned in to Walter Cronkite for the past two decades saw him sign off for the last time, "and that's the way it is." And so it was, the 1981 senior year.

(TIME covers reprinted by permission from TIME, © Time Inc. 1980).

The local arcades, our home TV sets, foyers, and waiting rooms were invaded by space age video games, capturing innocent players and turning them into "space invader fanatics." Space invader addiction became such a large issue in 1980 that The House of Commons in London debated the merits and demerits of the international fad.

New waves from London crossed the Atlantic and rocked the U.S. music scene. The new wavers (not to be confused with punk rockers) could be found in their second-hand thin lapelled blazers reading the music columns of the Village Voice or the Soho Weekly News. If that didn't identify them, you couldn't miss their orange hair and harlequin sunglasses.

Conservatism spread through the school as the 1980 "prep revival" caught on. The "preppies" walked the halls in L.L. Bean duck shoes and Sperry top-siders. A prep could often be found wearing his entire wardrobe at once. One would start with a LaCoste polo shirt and, in the process of layering, follow with an Oxford cloth shirt, cover that with a Norwegian sweater from L.L. Bean, and finally conceal it all with a down vest. Why? Because it was practical. They could simply "shed" to conform to any occasion that arose. The preppies weren't hard to find, even though Xavier is no prep school. After all, we didn't have a lacrosse team and Brother Kelly made us wear socks.

Most of us identify him by his stalwart patience in almost any situation. Even when the yearbook staff monopolized his office with its assorted paraphernalia, he didn't seem to mind. In the classroom, his quick wit could not be matched by our attempts at trying to outsmart him.

Besides teaching Biology and Chemistry, he involves himself as science department chairman, jayvee baseball coach, ski club moderator, XLI and junior retreat facilitator, sophomore weekend cook, assistant treasurer, and coordinator of the annual Bloodmobile visit.

We appreciate your care and concern for all of us, and we as a class will always remember you as a great teacher and friend. So to you, Mr. Pierce, we gladly dedicate the 1981 Don.

His unending humor and wit made subjects like Marriage Freshman Religion and at one time French a little more interesting and bearable for all of us. He put countless hours into shaping an amateur cast into a competent acting company for Xavier's dramatic productions. The appreciative members of the cast nicknamed him 'Dad' to show their love for their devoted director.

In addition to directing the school play and to teaching, he also serves as choir director, XL and junior retreat facilitator, and sophomore weekend kitchen crew leader.

He means a lot of things to many of us, but we many look to him for his guidance, humor, and friendship. For all of these reasons, we also dedicate the 1981 Don to Mr. Stephen Thibeau.

 1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the properties of the function $f(x)$ defined by the equation $f(x) = \int_0^x f(t) dt$. It is shown that $f(x)$ is a constant function, and the value of this constant is determined.

A special tribute to Bro. Jeremiah

"We at Xavier shall miss him, we shall miss his tremendous interest in all things affecting Xavier, we shall miss his presence, cameras slung around his neck, at all events in which Xavier has a part. We of the Brothers community shall miss his humor, his refusal to answer a question with a simple yes or no when a paragraph would obfuscate the issue very well, and above all we shall miss his charity and his willingness to serve the brethren, which are truly legendary among us.

At Xavier's fifteenth annual graduation exercises Bro. James Boyle offered the above tribute to Brother Jeremiah Dromey, in presenting this school's founding librarian, resident photographer and former history teacher, with a plaque honoring him for eighteen years of exceptional service. It took some pushing and prodding from one of his colleagues to coax the notoriously shy "Miah" on stage to accept the award from Bishop Reilly, as faculty, parents, graduates and friends responded with a tumultuous standing ovation.

We indeed shall miss Brother Jeremiah, as he leaves Middletown to take up residence at Xaverian Brothers High School, in Westwood, Mass. Most of us will remember his uncanny ability to pull from memory the most obscure piece of trivia on nearly any subject, or to direct us to the precise volume, page and paragraph of a text, if he could not remember. Who among us has not had his patience tested posing for the ardent photographer, and who will forget Brother Jeremiah's frequent command, "Hold it, just one more. You're looking at him! You're looking at him!"

Those of us on the yearbook staff shall affectionately remember the signature "B. J." on many a memo of advice. Working with the seasoned yearbook moderator proved to be an enlightening experience, once we gained an appreciation of his filing system which, for the most part, existed entirely in his head. Through time we learned to interpret his responses to our questions. "I'll see what I can do" meant he would photograph an event for us, and "I could live with it" was his way of saying, "That photograph is OK. Use it."

We will have a difficult time separating our impressions of the Don from our image of Brother meticulously and diligently laboring over the publication in the school library through the better part of each summer. There were times when he would hold an entire section of the book from print, while awaiting the delivery of a photograph depicting an individual's special achievement. It mattered not whether it concerned an award presentation at an honors banquet, a highlight of athletic competition, a jubilee, a wedding, or a birthday or retirement party. Somehow, everyone seemed to earn recognition when Brother Jeremiah was covering the ongoings of the year. Through the fourteen or so editions of the Don which he virtually singlehandedly created, Brother Jeremiah provided us with the paradigm of the high school yearbook. The omnipresent camera eye characteristic of the "Jeremiah Yearbook" will remain a legend at Xavier High School.

Yes, we will miss you Brother Jeremiah... you, one of the least photographed individuals in past editions of the Don. This page is for you (pardon the white space). Through the remarks of your first assistant yearbook moderator, Jim Shields, we all share in extending to you all of our best wishes.

"It is said that a picture is worth a thousand words. If such be the case, all of the pictures you have ever taken on behalf of the Don cannot equal the number of words that so many of us have in our hearts in the way of thanks and love for you.

May you enjoy success and happiness in your new mission.

Christ's peace."

Farewell to our founding librarian.

Xavier Leadership Institute: a time for reflection and friendship

On August 16, 1980, 71 Xavier seniors and their teachers journeyed to Mount Saint Marie in Holyoke, Mass. to experience the ninth annual Xavier Leadership Institute. Each came for his own reason, but nearly all agreed that they wished to learn more about themselves and each other.

During the course of the five days, various talks were given. Mr. Thibeau's talk reflected on leadership and self. Mr. McKenna spoke on working to one's potential; Br. Cichon encourages seniors to become involved with student government, while Br. Pawlik described his vision of Christian leadership.

Councils assembled and chose such names as Soyitberg, Beastly Slugs, Dukes of Doubt and the Berliners. Council discussions dealt with problem solving, poster making, and athletic competition.

It was a happy time, but no one will forget the sadness everyone felt when saying goodbye to some dear friends. Br. Joe, Fr. Jerry, and Br. Kane. All that were involved enjoyed the opportunity to become more of a community.

"We hold a treasure . . .

We hold a treasure
Not made of gold,
In earthen vessels wealth untold
One treasure only
The Lord, the Christ
In earthen vessels

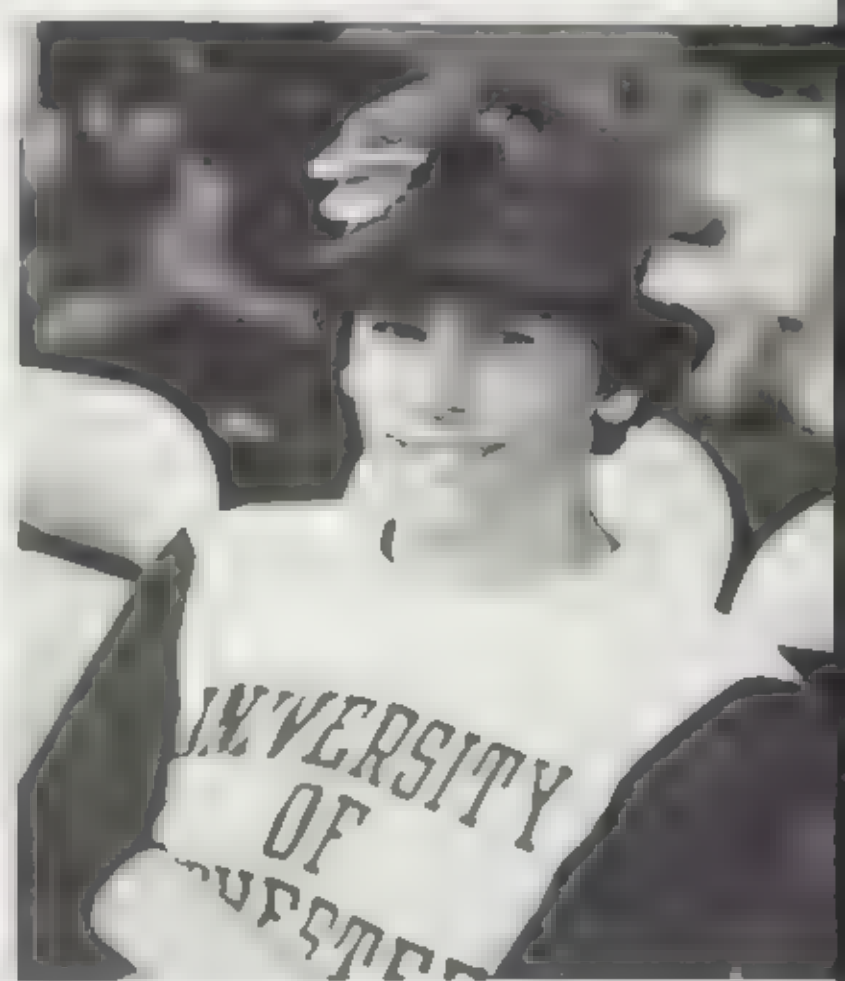

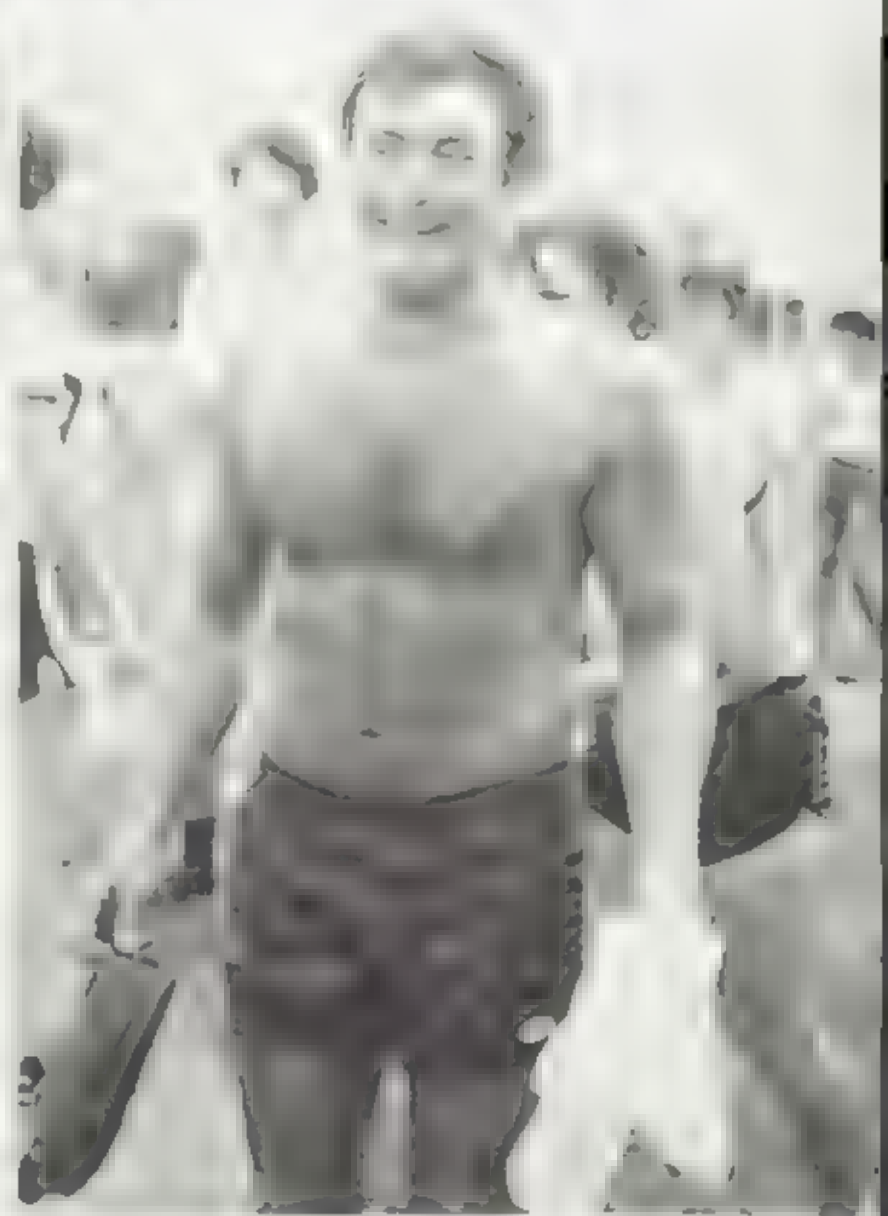

Light has shown in our darkness
God has shown in our hearts,
With the light of the glory
Of Jesus the Lord

He has chosen the lowly
Who are small in this world
In His weakness is glory
In Jesus the Lord

Freshmen encouraged to grow in the spirit of community and love

On September 2, the Religion department and about 70 seniors welcomed the class of 1984 to Xavier High School for the first time through the annual Freshman Orientation Day.

The orientation day consisted of many activities to acquaint the freshmen not only with the school, but with their fellow classmates as well. The day's agenda included an icebreaking circle game led by Br. Kelly, a welcoming speech by Jeff O'Sullivan, a sample run of the actual schedule and group discussions and poster making. The climax of the day consisted of Fr. LeBlanc's celebrating his first mass as newly appointed chaplain of Xavier. In his homily Fr. LeBlanc commented, "This is my freshmen year at Xavier, and I look forward to growing up with the class of 1984 in the spirit of community and love."

SAC officers show care and concern

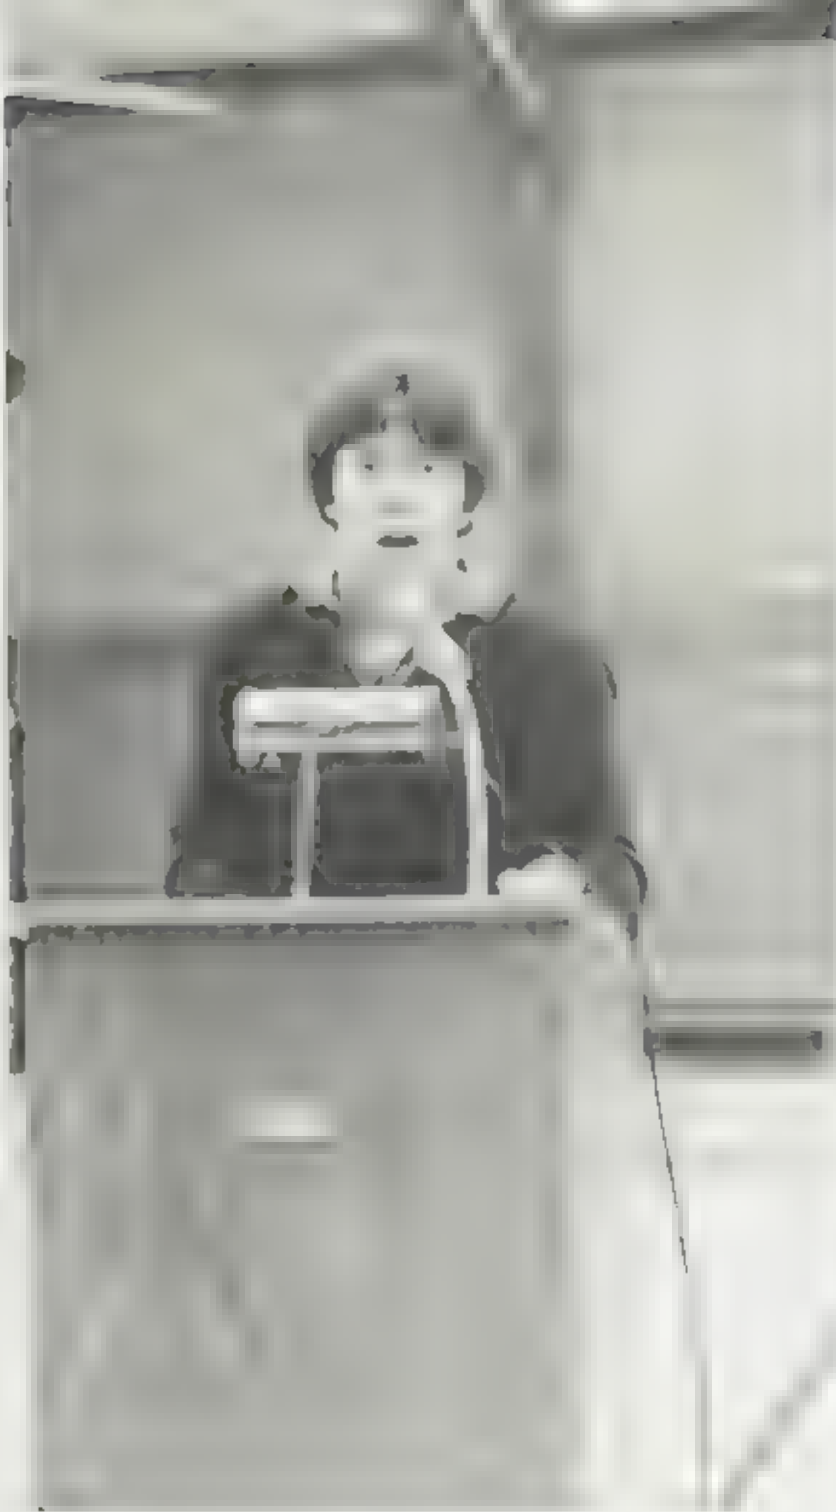

throughout year

The 1980-81 officers of the Student Activities Council (SAC) did their jobs not only as co workers but as a close unit. The executive council that showed care and concern for Xavier through its actions was led by president Jeff O'Sullivan, vice-president Mark Ryan, secretary Chris Rixon, and treasurer Gary Richo. Chris Mordarski was class prexy and Tom Patton served as vice-president. Jim Reardon and Hampton Coley fulfilled their duties as president and vice-president of the sophomore class respectively.

SAC activities prove

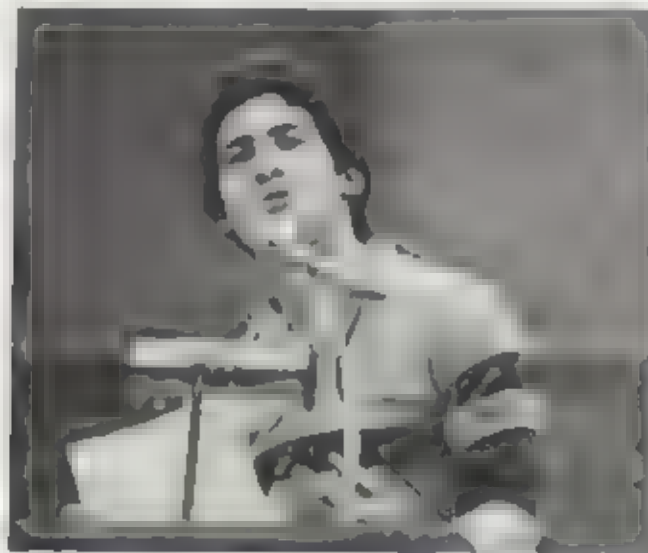

As always, the S.A.C. activities were very successful this year. The council ran four profitable dances, a skating party and two nests, as well as a smashing prom. The council once again led the school to a victory over Mercy High School in the Walkathon.

The council also ran several charitable projects which included the Rock nest, the food drive, and the "dating game," which was done in conjunction with Mercy. Proceeds from these events went to area charity.

The credit should not only be given to the officers for the success of the council's work. Moderators Br. Dave Cichon and Mrs. Orrill, the "First Lady" of the S.A.C. office, worked countless hours to assure a successful year.

Bishop grants holiday and celebrates Mass to officially begin year

On September 19, the Most Reverend Bishop Daniel P. Reilly made his annual visit to Xavier High, officially beginning the school year. Amid the usual tumultuous ovation delivered by the student body, the Bishop welcomed the freshmen, challenged the upperclassmen with goals for the new year and granted the anticipated Bishop's holiday.

The Holy Eucharist was concelebrated by the Bishop and school chaplain, Fr. Charles LeBlanc. Although Father celebrated an Ascension Mass on a visit to Xavier the previous year, this opening mass was the first he celebrated as newly appointed chaplain.

In his homily, the Bishop praised both the lay faculty and the Brothers for their unselfish devotion to the academic and spiritual development of their students. "We have problems when people think only about themselves," remarked Bishop Reilly. He further reminded his listeners. "Where men live together in love, there God is found."

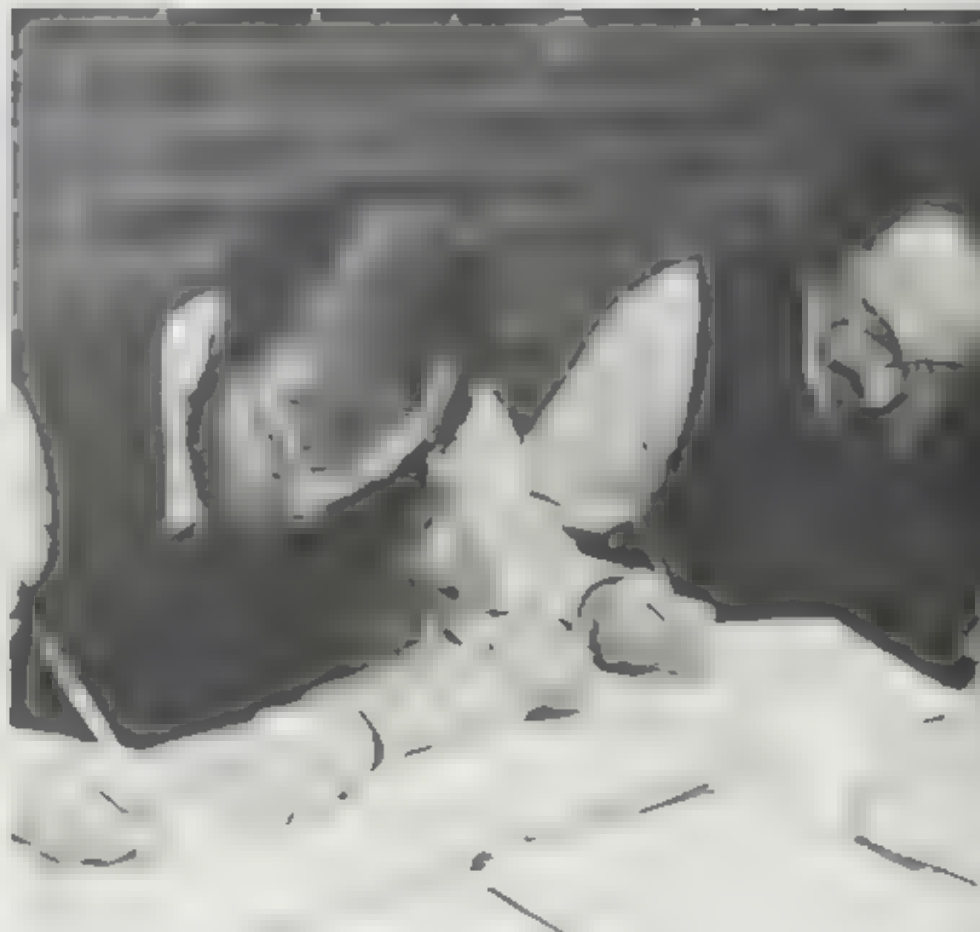

Math team finishes

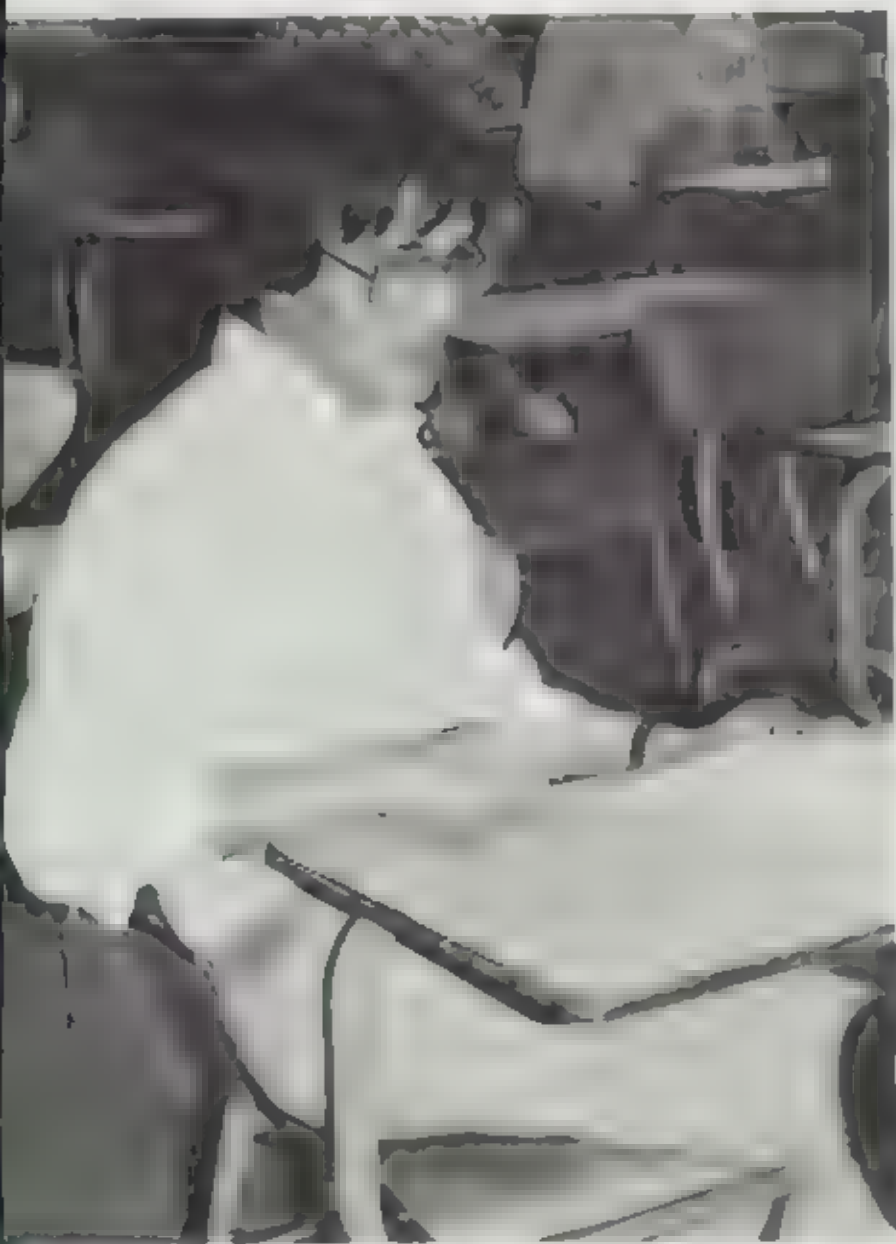

In a disappointing, but not entirely unsuccessful season, the Xavier Math Team finished third in the fifteen member Greater Middlesex Math League. The Falcon squad of captain John Birkmeyer, Robert Baker and Joseph Manzi, juniors Dave Carlson and Brian Murphy, and sophomore Steven Murphy did, however manage to qualify for the Connecticut State Math Meet held in Milford. There the team tied for second place, and earned an invitation to travel to Canton, Mass. to compete in the New England Championship meet.

At the annual Middlesex County Math League banquet, standout performer John Birkmeyer received a trophy as Xavier's top scorer. He also was awarded a scholarship for his achievements as third highest scorer in the league.

In junior varsity competition, the Xavier squad of Steven Murphy, Patrick Swift, Steven Kata, Arthur Blanchard, Bernie Sheehan, Tom Dente and Dave Winicki ended their season with two first place and two second place finishes.

Xavier's Walkathon

The sixth annual ten mile Mercy Xavier Walkathon proved a fantastic success as students collected close to forty thousand dollars to aid in the continued operation of the two schools. Although Mercy was determined to beat Xavier in percentage points, the Xavier spirit triumphed again with individual school totals being $20,564.87 for Xavier and $18,870.55 for Mercy.

Mr. Borha's O.C. 16 homeroom rallied again to win the homeroom competition, with $6,898.21, followed by Br. William's O.C. 32, Mr. Boucher's O.C. 23 and Mr. Festel's O.C. 41 homerooms. The top collector from Xavier was junior Walter Czapla with $305.

Much support in the walkathon was given by Burger King of Middletown. A free Whopper and order of french fries were donated to each student who brought in more than $25.00. Burger King also provided refreshments after Walkathon to the hungry walkers.

total far exceeds Mercy's once again

Seniors sacrifice

In keeping with the spirit of Christianity and community, members of the senior class donated three periods every Wednesday to area schools and other county establishments. The seniors offered their skills by giving invaluable assistance to the community in the program known as "Senior Volunteer." Most participants tutored in elementary or middle schools, some helped in area police stations, and one group assisted at St. Vincent de Paul's Place.

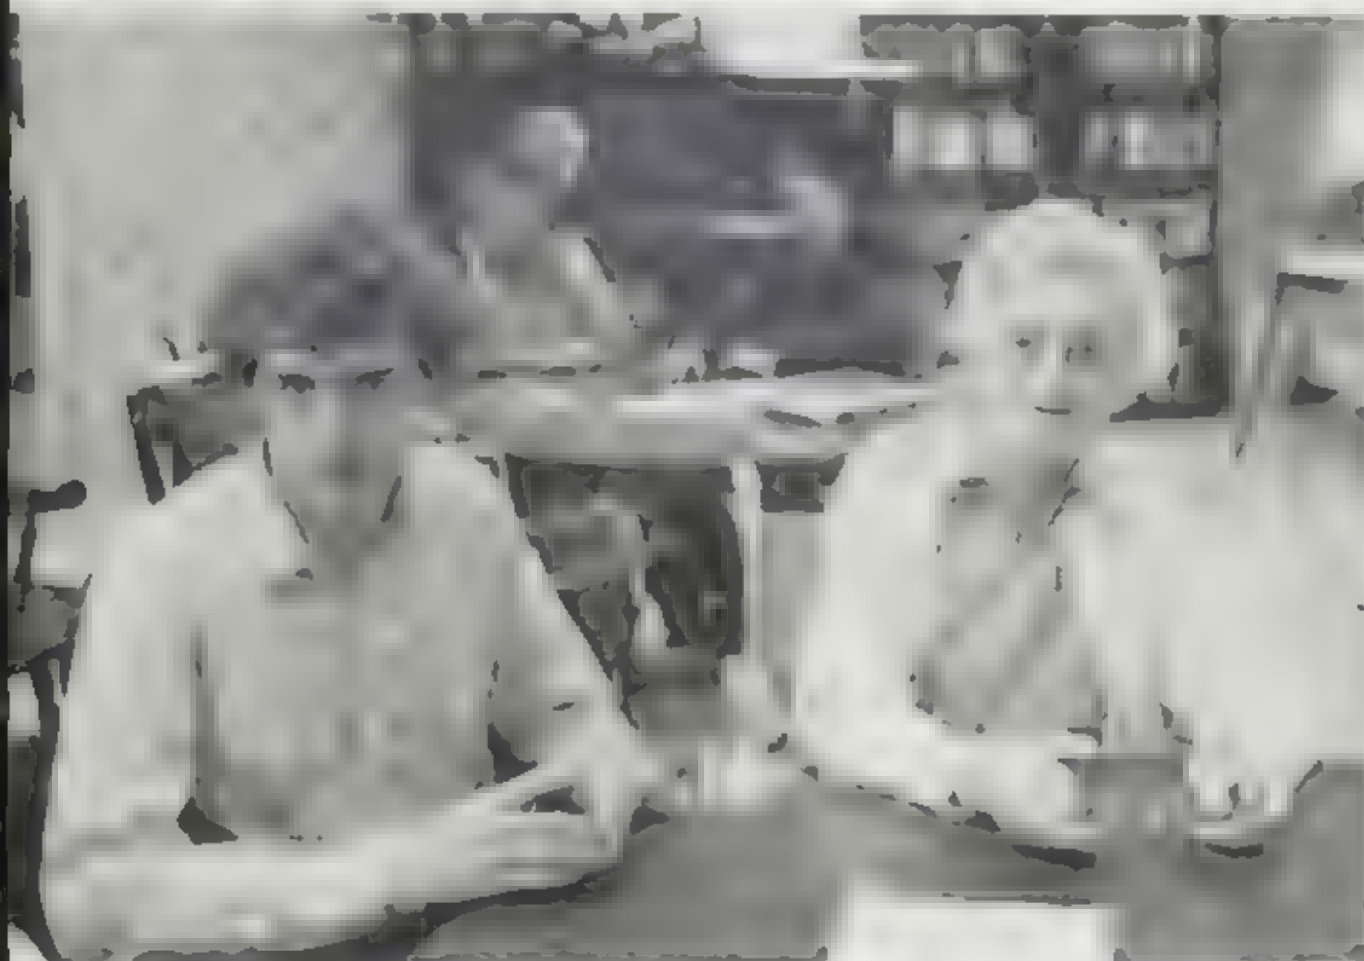

Two seniors reflected on their experience in the program. Mike Higgins believed his participation brought him "an intangible satisfaction of leadership, responsibility and, more importantly, a feeling of maturely aiding youth in their studies." Of the program Brian Hetherington stated, "I found the program very rewarding because I can see the boost the younger students receive from knowing that an older student is making an effort to help them on a personal level."

Juniors experience community involvement

through volunteer work

This past year 108 juniors participated in the Junior Volunteer Program. The juniors went to the Middlesex Convalescent Home on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays to participate in the student-patient program. Students were each assigned to patients on the first day. Some volunteers played card games with their patients, while some just talked or read to their elderly friends.

Many of the volunteers found that working with a senior citizen could be difficult. The students became more comfortable with their patients, however, after they had been with them for a few weeks. Brother Kelly and Brother William organized the program.

Juniors explore their spiritual lives

through March retreat

A major event in the Xavier religion program is the Junior Retreat. This year 103 juniors, accompanied by faculty members, traveled to Holyoke Mass. to meet at the Mt. Marie spiritual center. Over the weekend, the participants explored their spiritual lives through group dynamics, prayer and individual reflection.

The retreatants heard talks by Bro. Cichon, Bro. Eddy, Mrs. Orrill, Bro. Kelly, Mr. Pierce and senior Ron Cozean. Also accompanying the group were Bro. William, Bro. Lawrence, Bro. Connolly, Bro. Green, Bro. Pawlika, Mr. Thibeau, Mr. Demicco, Mr. Mendillo, Mrs. Charpentier, Sr. Mary Carney and Fr. LeBlanc. Through this very worthwhile experience, the juniors gained new insight of themselves and got to know their teachers and classmates from a new perspective.

This year's five sophomore weekends proved to be a memorable experience for all involved, thanks to the skillful leadership of Bro David Eddy and Mrs Michele Orrill. Each retreat consisted of senior talks, a Penance service, Mass, and game and exercise periods led by Mr Demicco. Time was also allotted for a primal scream session. Gourmet food was provided by Mr Thibeau, who headed cooking crews composed of seniors and faculty.

Senior leaders for the weekends were Ron Cozean, Mike Russo, Joe Muraca and John Fiaherly, who ran two of the sophomore retreats. Peter Platek and Joe Muraca provided guitar music for the closing Eucharist on each of the weekends. Especially memorable was Fr. LeBlanc's homily reading of The Giving Tree.

Under the guidance of moderator Brother William, this year's 81-member National Honor Society continued to provide needed service to Xavier. President Ron Cozean and Vice President Geoff Smith were responsible for bringing in two superb speakers. Paul Bromiey, a biblical researcher, spoke on the Shroud of Turin. Michael Cubeta, Mayor of Middletown spoke on the need for good leadership in government.

The Society, in cooperation with the Guidance Department, planned the Junior Career Night. Treasurer Tom Conroy and secretary Jay Walter formulated the tutoring program. The Society provided ushers at various school events including report card day, school play and graduation ceremonies. The overall success of this year's Society was rewarded with a Mass in honor of Monsignor Wilson, the person for whom the Society is named, and a pizza party and open gym night.

AYYY! Mexico City and

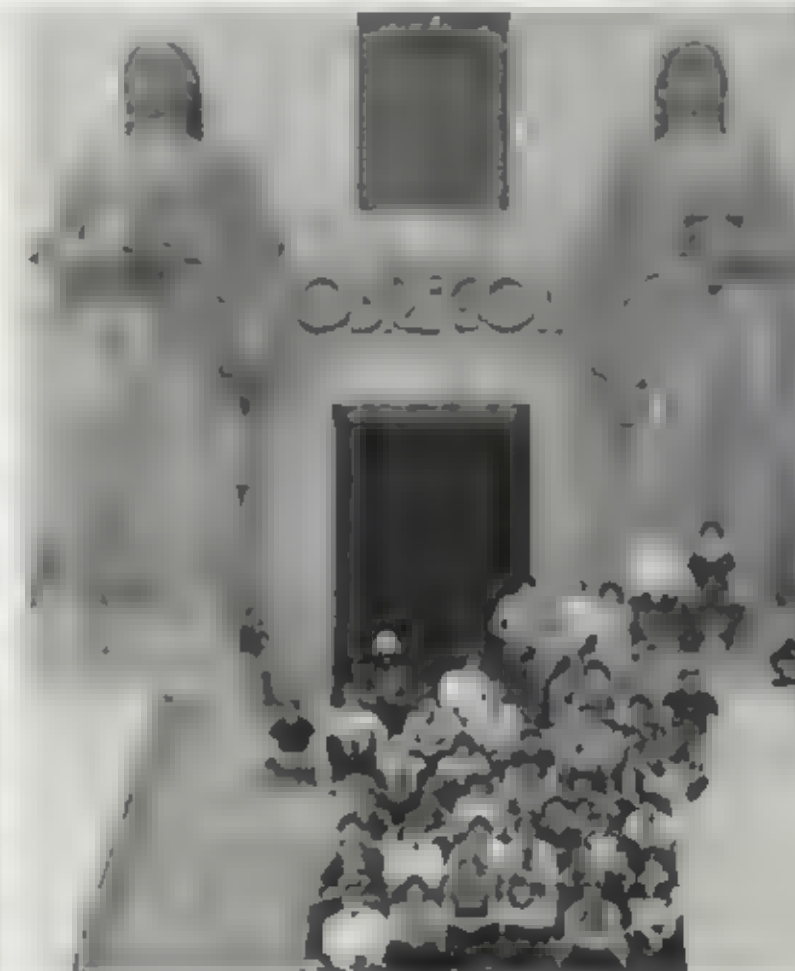

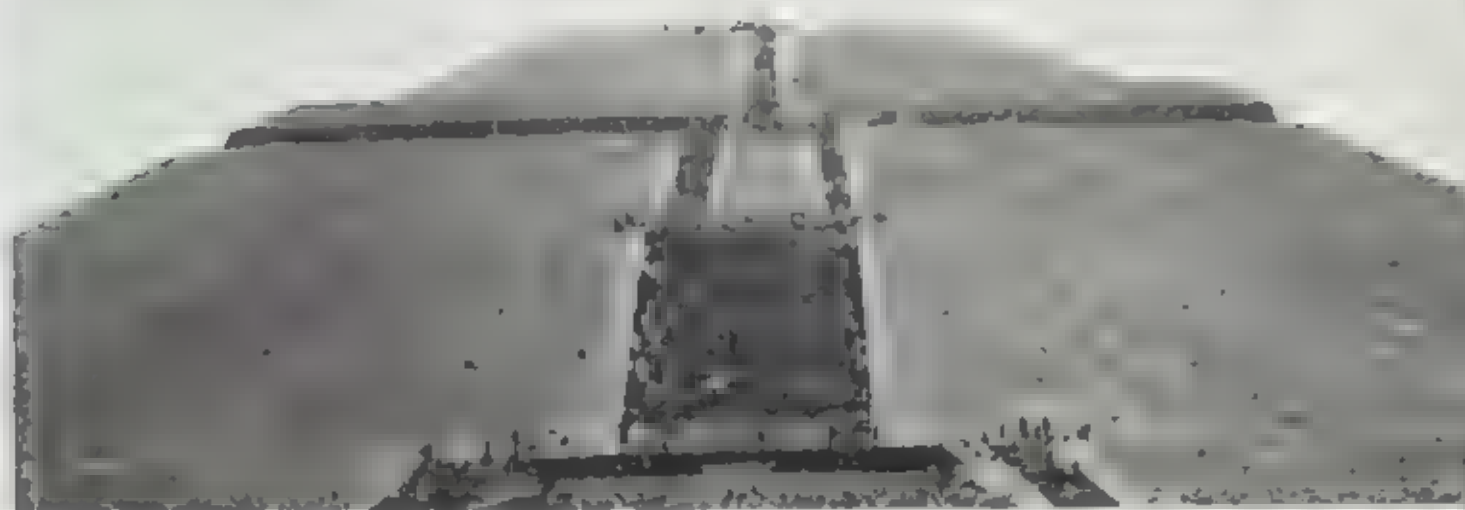

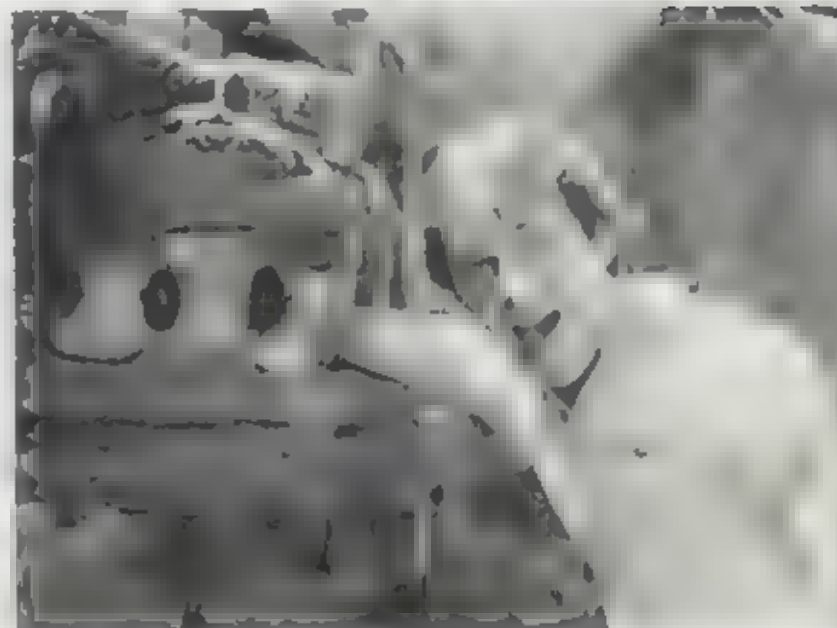

This year's trip to Mexico by 35 students and 4 chaperones (Bro Cichon, Ms Jan Rossman, Ms Lauren Fraser and Mr Mendillo) will long be remembered. For the first four days, the group was constantly on the go, whether it was to the open air markets, the silver shops, the pyramids, the Royal Palace in Chapultepec Park, the Shrine of the Lady of Guadalupe, or just to Shirley's (for "real" American food).

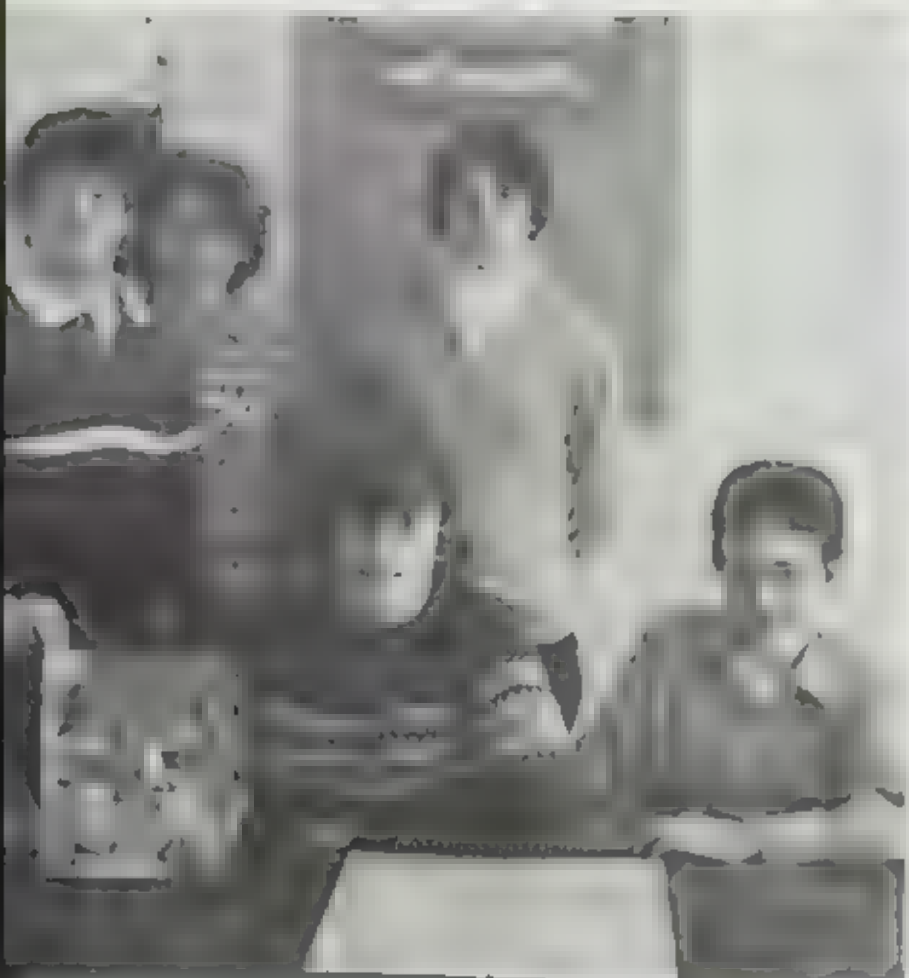

By the time the group arrived in Acapulco, the one thought was of lying on the beach and getting a tan. The following night, Ms Rossman's birthday, was the highlight of the trip. In a spontaneous celebration she was carried, in her chair, around the Beto's Restaurant by four burly waiters while the band played the Mexican birthday song, "Feliz Cumpleanos." It was a "real" . . . good time!

Coin collectors, war gamers, photographers organize interest clubs

This year, the Coin Club with a membership of eight, met twice monthly with Mr. Boucher as moderator. The members of the club had many group discussions about their own coins including trade worth, and additions to the collection. They also listened to many guest speakers on the subjects of old, rare coins of high interest and value. Along with this, they also traded and purchased many of their own coins.

The War Games Club manned their battle stations under the supervision of Mr. Montemero. The club, with a membership of ten, met every Friday to stage a mock and harmless battle.

Meanwhile, president Kevin Wilson and the members of the Camera Club met regularly on Thursdays, with moderator, Bro. Houlihan. The group shared basic photographic knowledge and saw a series of filmstrips dealing with picture content and position.

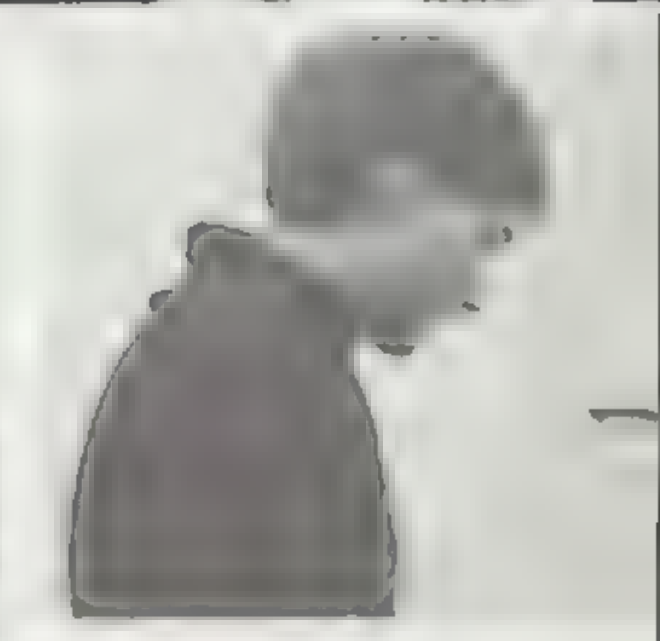

Kestrel staff cranks

This year's Kestrel put out five issues under a new moderator. After Mrs. Michele Orrill left the newspaper crew to become assistant SAC moderator, the burden of leading the Kestrel fell on the shoulders of Mr. George Mendillo. Editors Brian Feeney, Jeff Fishbein, Jeff Dooley, and David McDowell teamed up with staffers John Dooley, Mark Hilsdon, Joe Iacovelli, David Kieft, Roger Lussier, Tim Rumberger, and Tom Speight to crank out the five informative issues. Although the staff struggled slightly in the beginning of the year, Mr. Mendillo and his staff worked together to put out three fine editions during the last two months of school.

Mighty yearbook staff publishes fifteenth edition of the Don

It took nearly ten months overflowing with long hours hard work, and perseverance for an animated, highly industrious yearbook staff to produce the 1984 Don. With the help of faculty moderators Ms. Linda Charpentier (alias Mrs. C.) and Ms. Jan Rossman (JR), the student team gathered almost daily to crank out page after page until the book met its final June 19th deadline. Along with daily work sessions, the staff mustered for an amalgamation of activities including a typing/pizza party and a victory dinner.

The entire yearbook staff extends its wholehearted gratitude to a multitude of individuals, without which this yearbook would not have been possible.

Our thanks to

Bro. Jeremiah for the use of his scrapbooks, and for serving us as photographer, subscription manager and irreplaceable mentor.

Bob Ross, 80 Bro. Lawrence and Bro. Eddy for their generous photography.

Mrs. Lorraine Hancock for graciously helping us with typing.

Mrs. Sheila Parmelee, for her help in copying.

Bro. Jim Kelly for allowing our homeroom photo sessions.

Mr. Tom Pierce for tolerating our takeover of his office and classroom.

Also Mrs. Evelyn Conway, Mrs. Kay Gianfriddo, Mrs. Clare Nettis, Ms. Michele Orrill, Mr. Stephen Thibeau, Mr. Leo Zieler of Loring Studios, Mr. Jim Toomey.

Special events make

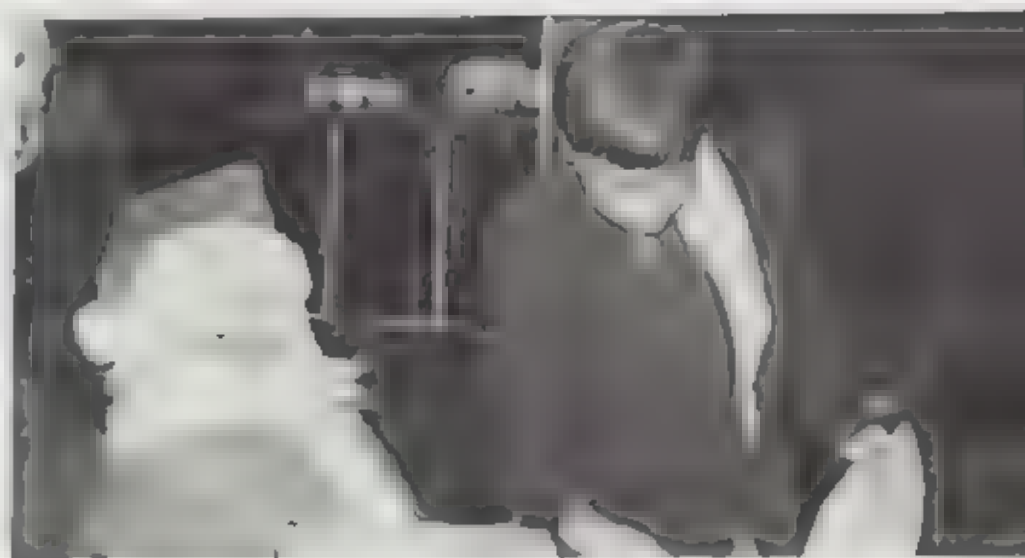

For the eleventh consecutive year Bro. Hollan led the Middlesex Youth Association for Retarded Citizens (MYARC) composed of approximately 100 Xavier and Mercy students. Xavier's award winning program, which was held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school, made use of the school as a place for fun and special programs. Each volunteer worked personally with a retarded person. Together they engaged in arts and crafts, and participated in activities including sing-alongs, dances, softball, kickball, soccer, and cageball.

During the year there were a number of special events such as the annual Christmas Party and the Special Olympics. The Christmas Party brought over 100 retarded persons to Xavier for dancing and a visit from Santa. The big event of the year, however, was the Special Olympics held on May 23 at Xavier. Over 500 participants and volunteers enjoyed a day of athletic events that put an emphasis not on winning, but rather on trying one's hardest.

life more enjoyable for the retarded

MYARC members experience the art of love through a hug and a smile

The 1980-81 school year will be remembered as a very good one for the Tuesday and Wednesday Programs of MYARC (The Middlesex Youth Association for Retarded Citizens). Although the leadership corps was hurt by the graduation of many of last year's senior volunteers, the programs were held together by many energetic "returners" who more than made up for a lack of experience with their ambition and determination.

The volunteers from Mercy and Xavier, led by Jeff Dooley (president), Marie Flood, Joe Manzi, Sharon Frank (vice-President) and Laura Miller (activities coordinator), helped bring joy to the over sixty retarded citizens who took part in the recreational programs at Xavier. This year's senior members will remember everyone involved in MYARC in a very special way, especially, as in the words of one volunteer, "the retarded who taught us how to love with just a hug and a smile."

"Finian's Rainbow": colorful cast performs

a golden production

On the evenings of December 5, 6, and 7 Mercy High School presented their production of "Finian's Rainbow" which was performed by a well organized group of students from both Mercy and Xavier. Newly appointed musical director, Mr Victor Salladin, shaped and formed the students into a fine productive cast of performers

Starring as Finian McLonergan, Ricci DeMartino gave a commendable performance. The voices of Michael LaBella (Woody) and Amy Sataga (Sharon) combined to produce many beautiful duets and solos. Veteran David McDowell dazzled the stage with his excellent performance of OG the Leprechaun

Other outstanding performances by Xavier students were, Steve Goldhamer (Senator Rawkins), Bob Hajek (Buzz Collins), Matthew Schaefer (the sheriff) and John Masselli (the preacher). Supporting actors and chorus included David Carey, Michael Conroy, David Jenson, TonyLauro and Doug Apicela

"Music Man" proves a meritorious success

from open to close

Adding yet another unparalleled performance to Xavier's past drama productions, "Music Man" proved to be a meritorious success from opening night. Only under the capable and energetic leadership of director Mr. Stephen Thibeau was the well rounded cast able to perform a show of such caliber.

Starring David McDowell as Prof. Harold Hill (the Music Man), the play opens to a small town in Iowa named River City. Greeted by his old business partner, Marcellus Washburn (Bob Hajek) plans are made to swindle the town by forming a boys band. The only problem is that Hill doesn't know one note from another. He falls in love with the town's librarian and music teacher, Marian (Elisa Papandrea) and soon the whole town is in an upheaval. Mayor Shinn (Chris Rixon) searched with his singing school board (Br. Boyle, Mr. Pierce and Fr. Leblanc) for the truth behind Harold Hill. The whole town seems to be under Hill's spell, even the Mayor's bourgeois wife, Eulalie (Laura Clartegio), Marian's old Irish Mother (Leann Murphy), her lisping

musical functions

The Mercy-Xavier band, in its second year of existence, proved a highly versatile group. Highly talented musicians, under the direction of Mr. Victor Salidan, performed exceptionally well in all their endeavors. During the football season, the band took to Palmer Field, successfully debuting as Xavier and Mercy's first marching band. In December, the band entertained with a melodious selection of holiday songs and carols. In May, the band reduced itself to a woodwind ensemble and performed sonatas and minutes for an art show and Senior Parent's Night.

Six inches of unexpected snow failed to keep away over 250 alumni from the Alumni Basketball Game and post-game gala. The enthusiastic group watched their team defeat the Xavier varsity in a very exciting contest. Thanks to the administrative skills of Mr. Rich Feitel, the association was also able to present Bro. James Boyle with its first scholarship contribution of one thousand dollars.

head M-X calendar

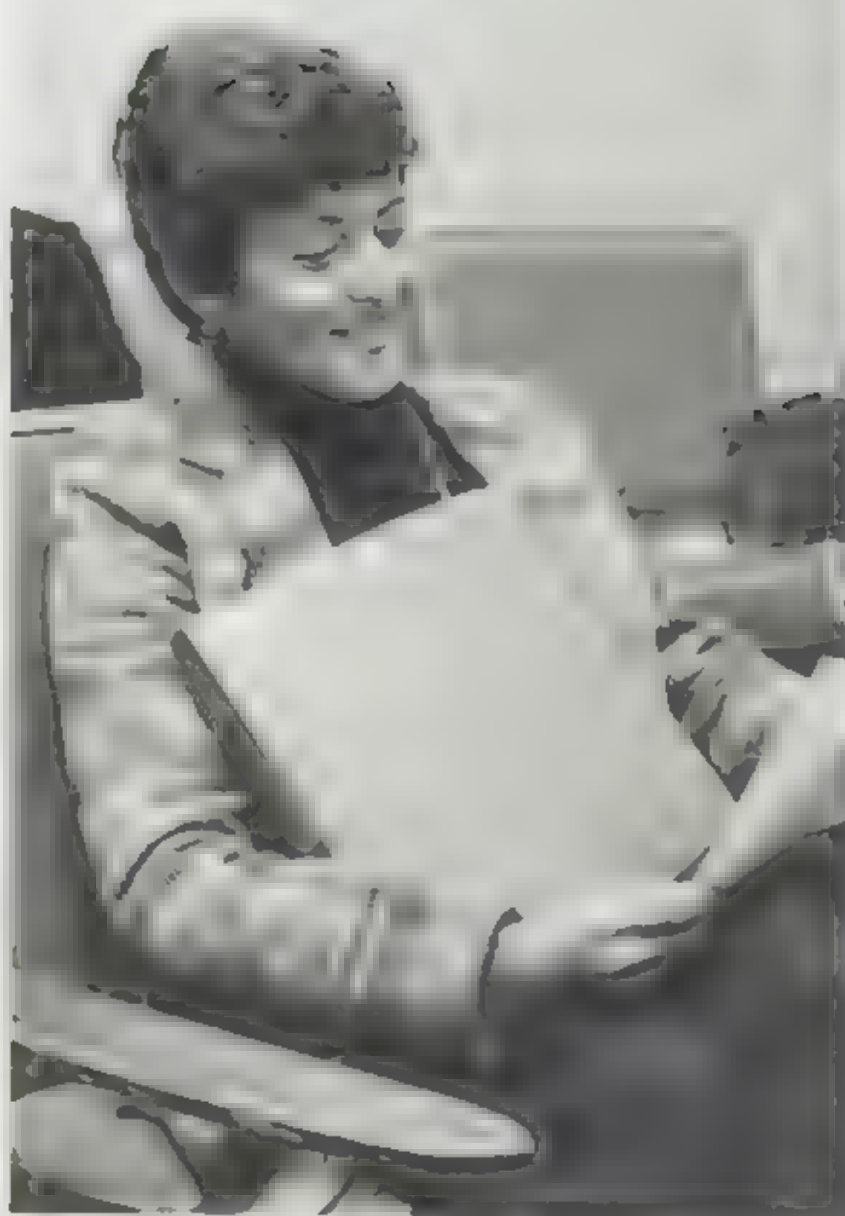

The M-X Development Corporation was formed in 1975 to help reduce the deficits of Mercy and Xavier High Schools. Since that time, thousands of people have donated their time and money so that both schools could continue to improve their excellent academic and extracurricular programs.

The major events of the M-X Calendar this year were the Walkathon, raffle, bus trips, golf tournament, Bingo, and a boat trip. In the fall, an athletic program booklet was put together and distributed to all parents and advertisers.

The M-X Development Corporation also reaped profits from the sale of the "M-X Cookbook" which was published a few years ago. In addition, plans were made to initiate the "M-X 500 Club", a monthly drawing event, which should prove to be highly successful.

Sal Aresco presides

The Home and School Association staged four successful activities during the year. Two of the events, the Freshman Parent Program held in September, and the May Senior Parent Reception, were newcomers to the school calendar. Both allotted parents the opportunity to socialize with faculty and friends on an informal basis. Entertainment for the latter occasion was provided by the Mercy-Xavier Woodwind Ensemble.

In October, the association sponsored its annual Military Whist Card Party, which was well attended. The traditional Lenten Family Mass took place in March.

Mr. Sal Aresco presided over the association this year. Other 1980-81 officers included Mr. Paul Birkmeyer, first vice pres., Mr. Fred Spallone, second vice pres., Mr. Emmanuel Pattivina, treasurer, and secretary Virginia Ness. Also instrumental were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kennedy, Pat McKenna, Doris Dooley, Joan Dyer, Judy Misenti and Sandra Sandagato.

Xavier High Rockers were entertained by favorite hit bands . . .

The Student Activity Council sponsored four entertaining dances during the course of the year. The dance season began with the biting rock 'n roll of Citadel. Next came the Wai kathon dance and the '60's sound with Route 66. This band played all the rock 'n roll classics by such artists as Eric Burden and the Animals, Steppenwolf, The Birds, and The Doors.

Oreo provided the music for the third dance. Its repertoire ranged from Jimi Hendrix to Devo. Oreo, encouraged by hundreds of cheering students, performed two encores.

The '81 dance season concluded with the hard rock sounds of Hot Head Slater. The dance was particularly enjoyed by the class of '81, as the seniors attended their last SAC dance.

Also well attended by Xavier students was Mercy's punk rock dance. Photographs of that dance are featured here too.

For the second year in a row the student body selected the bands for this year's dances. The Arizona Mud Band was the top vote getter but was not available. The other winners were Greg Rye and Hot Head Slater. Clade, the band for the first dance, was chosen before the voting because the dance fell so early in the school year.

Xavier Promenade a time for fun and lasting memories

On May 8, 233 couples arrived at McConaughy Hall, dressed to a tee and prepared for a fun-filled evening. No one was disappointed.

"This was fantastic, much better than last year," exclaimed a very happy Jeff O'Sullivan whose job it was to organize this event. Members of the local band "Hartford" provided music for this occasion. They played a variety of music which seemed to please the entire crowd.

When the last strings of "The Famous Final Scene" and "Last Dance" died down, it was not without a hint of sadness that the outgoing seniors left their last prom. "It's sad when it's all over, but I guess it's time to move on." So stated a melancholy David McDowe.

Prom night a time full

We know little of what the future holds

And in dreams of happy endings
and in promises are hidden from us
in the night

There is so little
we can know with certainty
But this we know, once
we were children

And about us tonight
the spring dogwood blooms breathing silently
white with moonlight,
white with promise

Xavier grads urged to

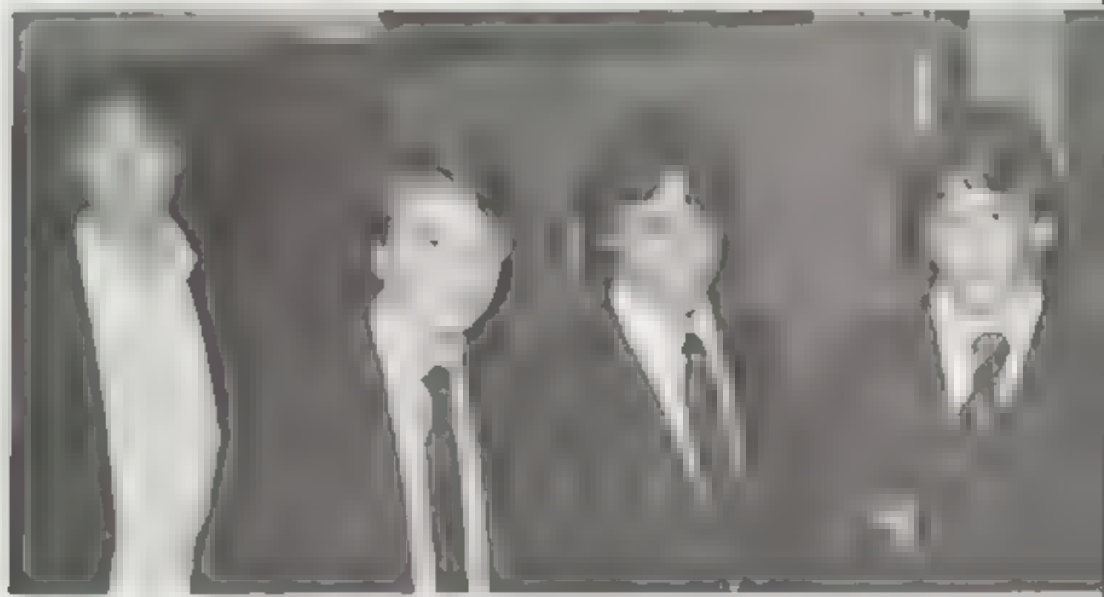

Describing Xavier High School as a community of faith and love, Father Charles LeBlanc exclaimed to graduates, parents, faculty and friends that, "we are called to grow as a branch near the living waters," and to "realize that God is always present and near us." The occasion was the May 30th Baccalaureate Mass for the class of '81. The Reverend continued by reminding the graduates to use their gifts in life to support their brethren.

Assisting Father LeBlanc in the Celebration of the Eucharist were lectors Jeff O'Sullivan, Gary Richo and Tom Patton, and servers Chris Mor-darski and Warren Bishoff. Seniors Joe Muraca, Peter Patek and Roger Lussier provided guitar accompaniment for the choir while Mr. Stephen Thibeau led the congregation in song.

One of the highlights of the Mass was Joe Muraca's solo of "Movin' into the Future," a song which he composed and which appears on the last page of this Don.

Ryan address graduates

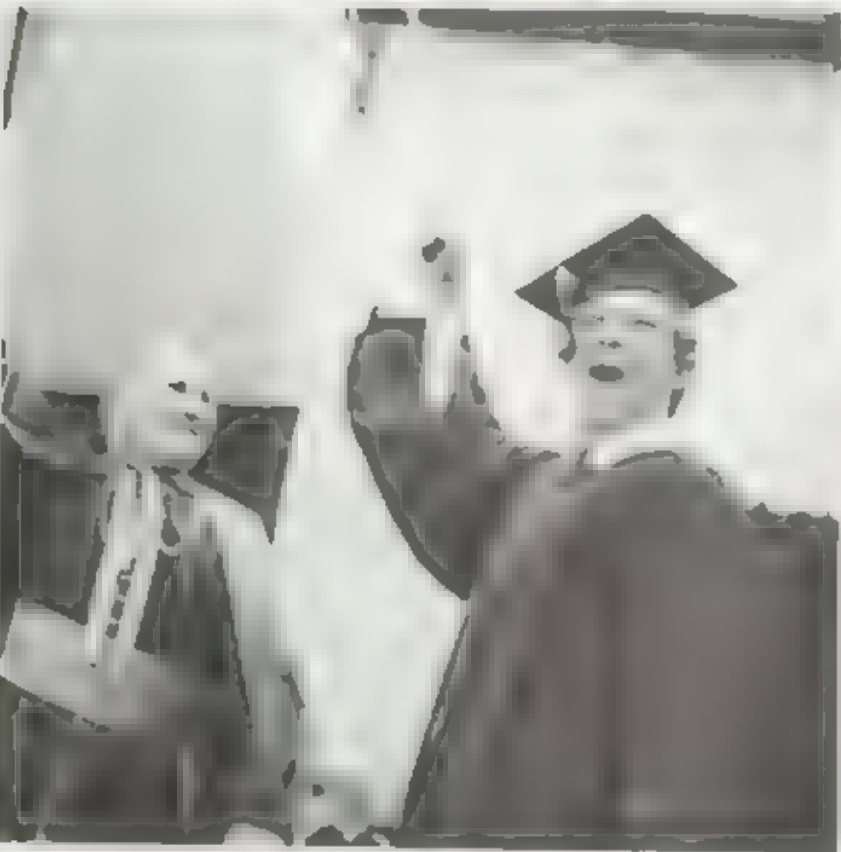

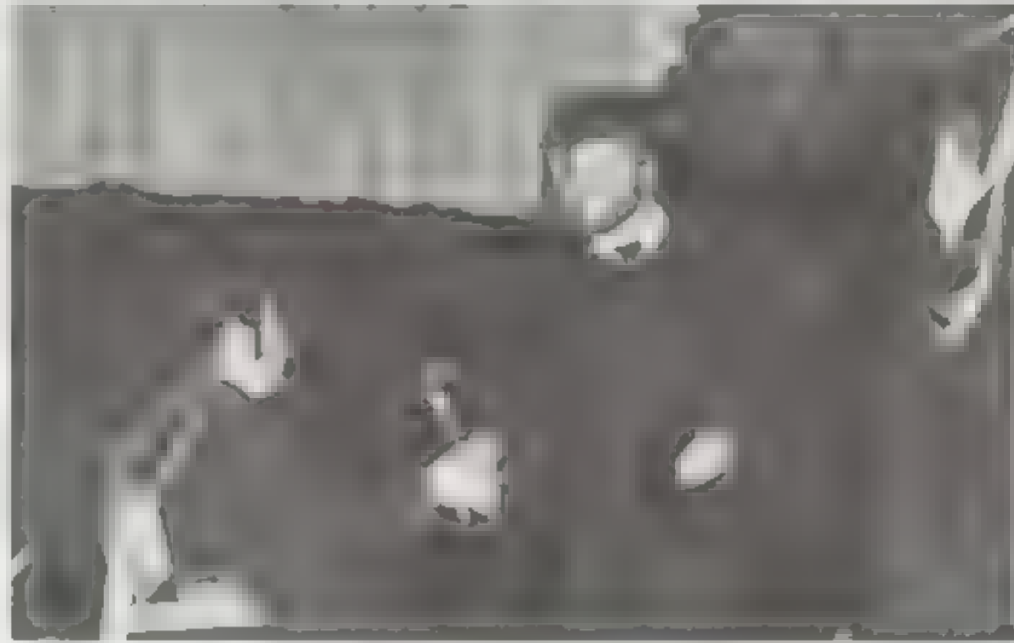

The 194 graduating seniors of the class of '84 heard addresses from several individuals at their June 1st commencement exercises. "Xavier High School has provided you with a Christ-centered education," Father Dennis Barry, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Clinton, told graduates. He stressed the preparation the graduates had received for facing a future of commitment to faith.

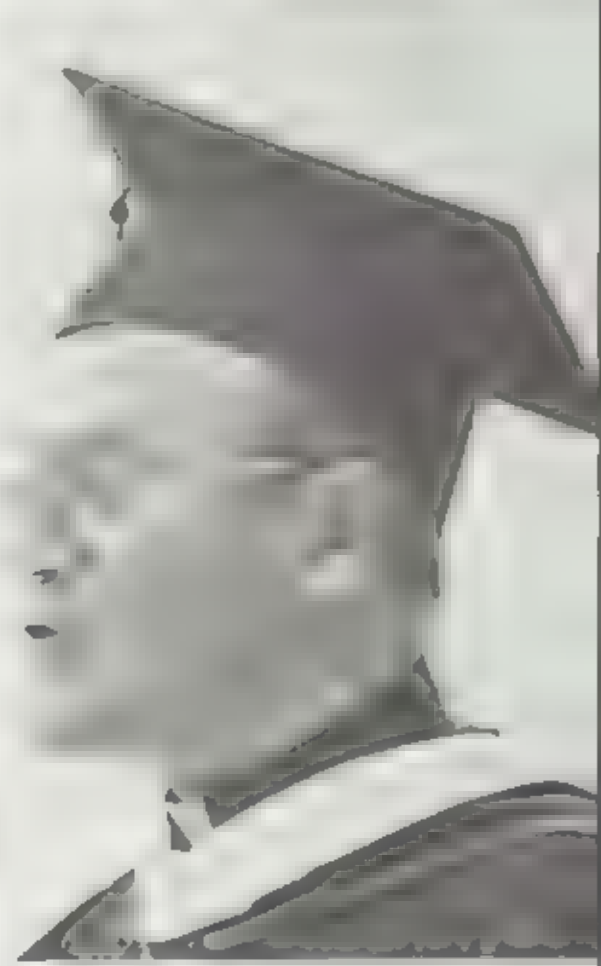

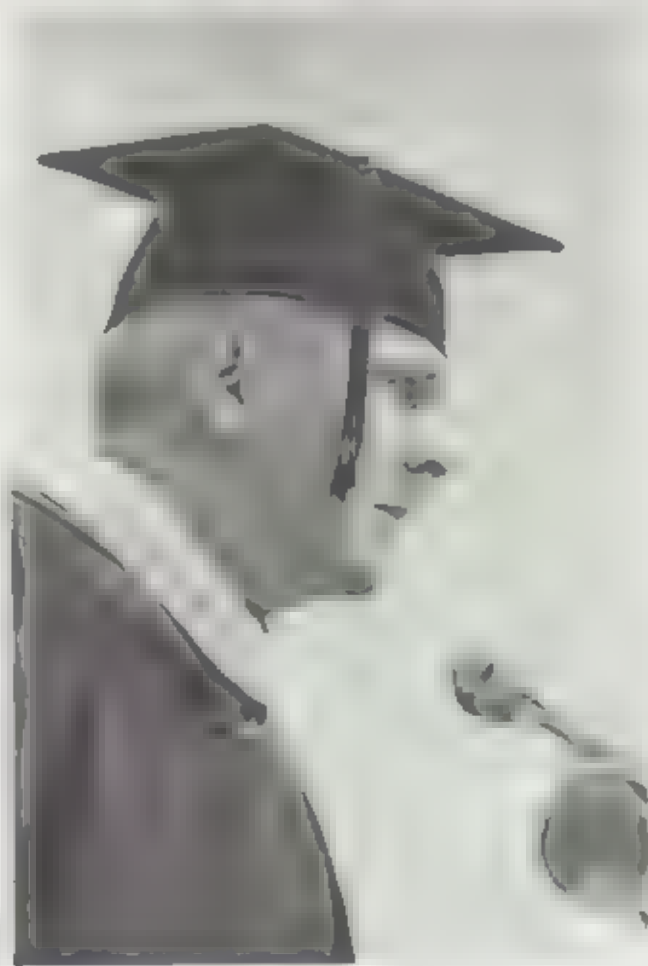

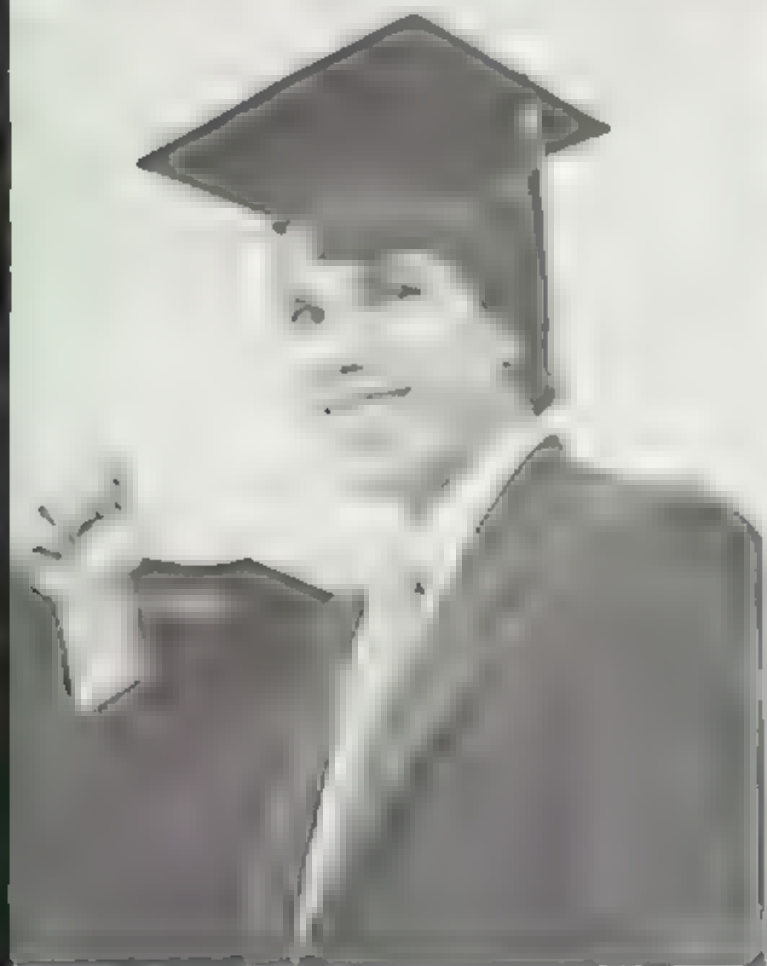

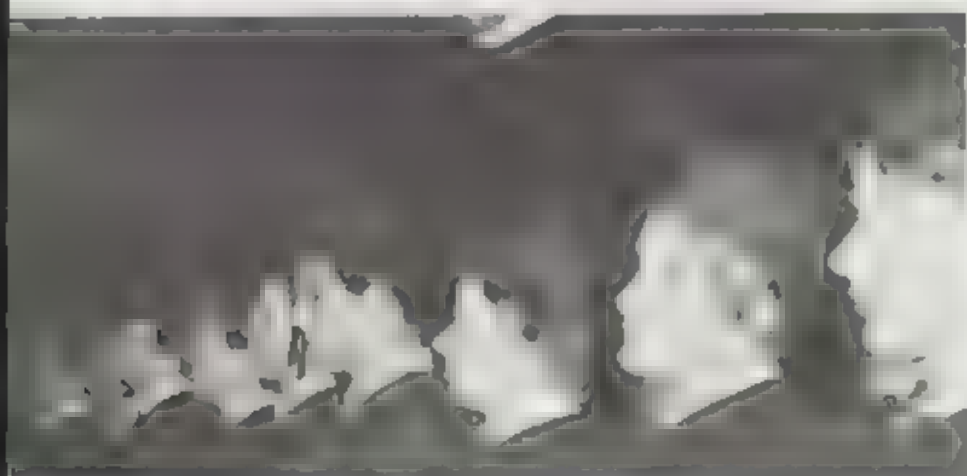

Bishop Daniel Reilly emphasized the value of the resurging parochial schools, and thanked parents and faculty for their dedication to Catholic education. The Bishop, along with Bro. James Boyle, also made a special presentation to departing Bro. Jeremiah Dromey, Xavier's founding librarian.

Mark Ryan greeted his class as salutatorian. Valetorian Ron Cozean in concluding the exercises, remarked, "no matter what happens, we will always have the memory of this place and of how it can be."

Falcon harriers win All-American honors

Coach Robert Michalski considered this year's cross country team to be "The greatest in Xavier's history." The team, which overcame numerous injuries to win its third consecutive State Open Championship and an All-American ranking, was led by Captain Ron Cozean and Senior Joe Swift, both of whom were named to the All-State team. The Falcons also won the Windham Invitational, Westlake New York Invitational, and the HCC and Class LL crowns enroute to their State Open Championship. Sophomore Pat Swift was also instrumental as the harriers extended their consecutive dual-meet win streak to 80.

Bob Michalski honored as Coach of the Year

On January 18, 1981, the Xavier community rejoiced at Mr. Robert Michalski's receipt of the Doc McInerney Award for Scholastic Coach of the Year. The award which was presented by the Connecticut Sport Writer's Alliance during its Fortieth Gold Key Dinner was richly deserved. Since becoming Xavier's cross country and track coach in 1968, Michalski has run up an incredible record unsurpassed by any Connecticut coach. Under Michalski's leadership, the Xavier Falcons won five consecutive CIAC Class L Championships before moving to Class LL in 1980 and winning that championship, too. Michalski guided his runners to an unprecedented three straight State Open Titles and four of the last six ('75, '78, '79, '80). His cross country team has compiled a remarkable cumulative record of 161-40 and has won eighty straight meets stretched out over six consecutive seasons. The Xavier track team has an even more impressive 164-10 record, with a winning streak of 95 meets to note.

In a few brief words at the ceremony, Michalski stated, "I'm elated and very moved by the award. I'm probably the luckiest coach in the world." Of Xavier he said "Xavier is a special place with special people. The atmosphere there helped me accomplish things."

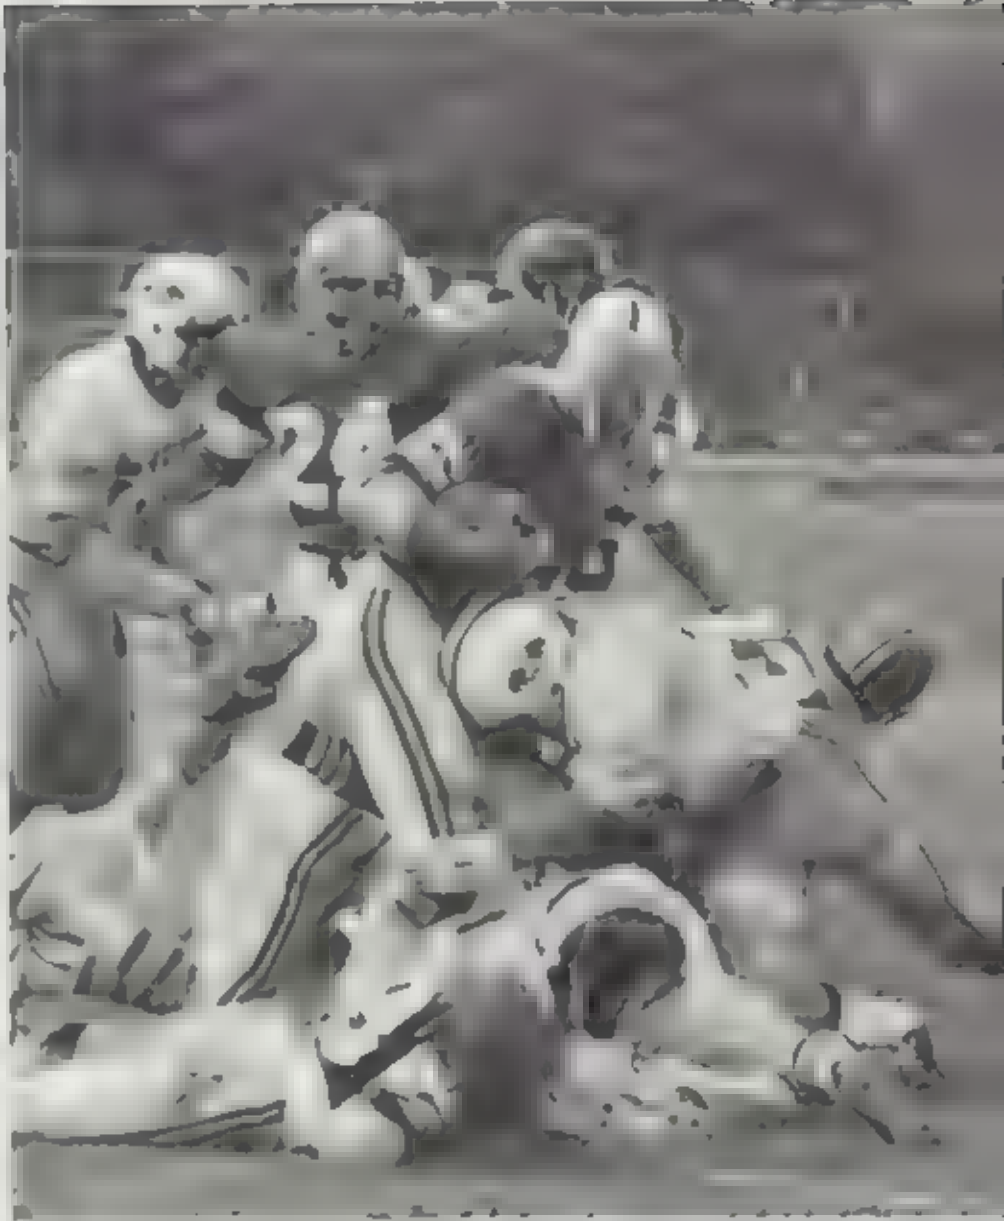

Falcon's tough schedule proves exciting

Xavier's varsity football team, playing what coach McHugh considered "the toughest schedule in the state," finished the 1980 campaign with a 7-3 record. The Falcons were led offensively by senior tri-captain Gary Richo and running back Amedeo Carta. The offense was also bolstered by Mike Souza, Chris Colavito and tri-captains Brian Hetherington and Paul Maturo. Maturo also spearheaded Xavier's hustling defense in addition to his offensive chores. Other stalwarts on "D" were Al Kostek, Joel Finnegan, Charles Galland, and Kevin Hassett. Bob Kelley, although injured for most of the season, was also instrumental at the linebacker position.

Falcons reap honors

Senior Amedeo Carta, honored as Connecticut's Player of the Week for his outstanding performance against Northwest Catholic, was named first team All-State. Joining Carta as All-HCC, and named honorable mention All-State, were seniors Chris Colavito, Paul Maturo and Brian Hetherington. Other Falcon performers named All-HCC were Charlie Galland and Joe Finnegan.

Jeff O'Sullivan, a starter on defense but forced to miss the entire season because of a preseason injury, won the Senior Leadership Award. Other award recipients were Sean Zisk, Coaches Award, Bob Barone Most Improved; Jim Misenti, Custom Carpet Award, Kevin Hassett, Defense Award, Michael Souza, Unsung Player Award.

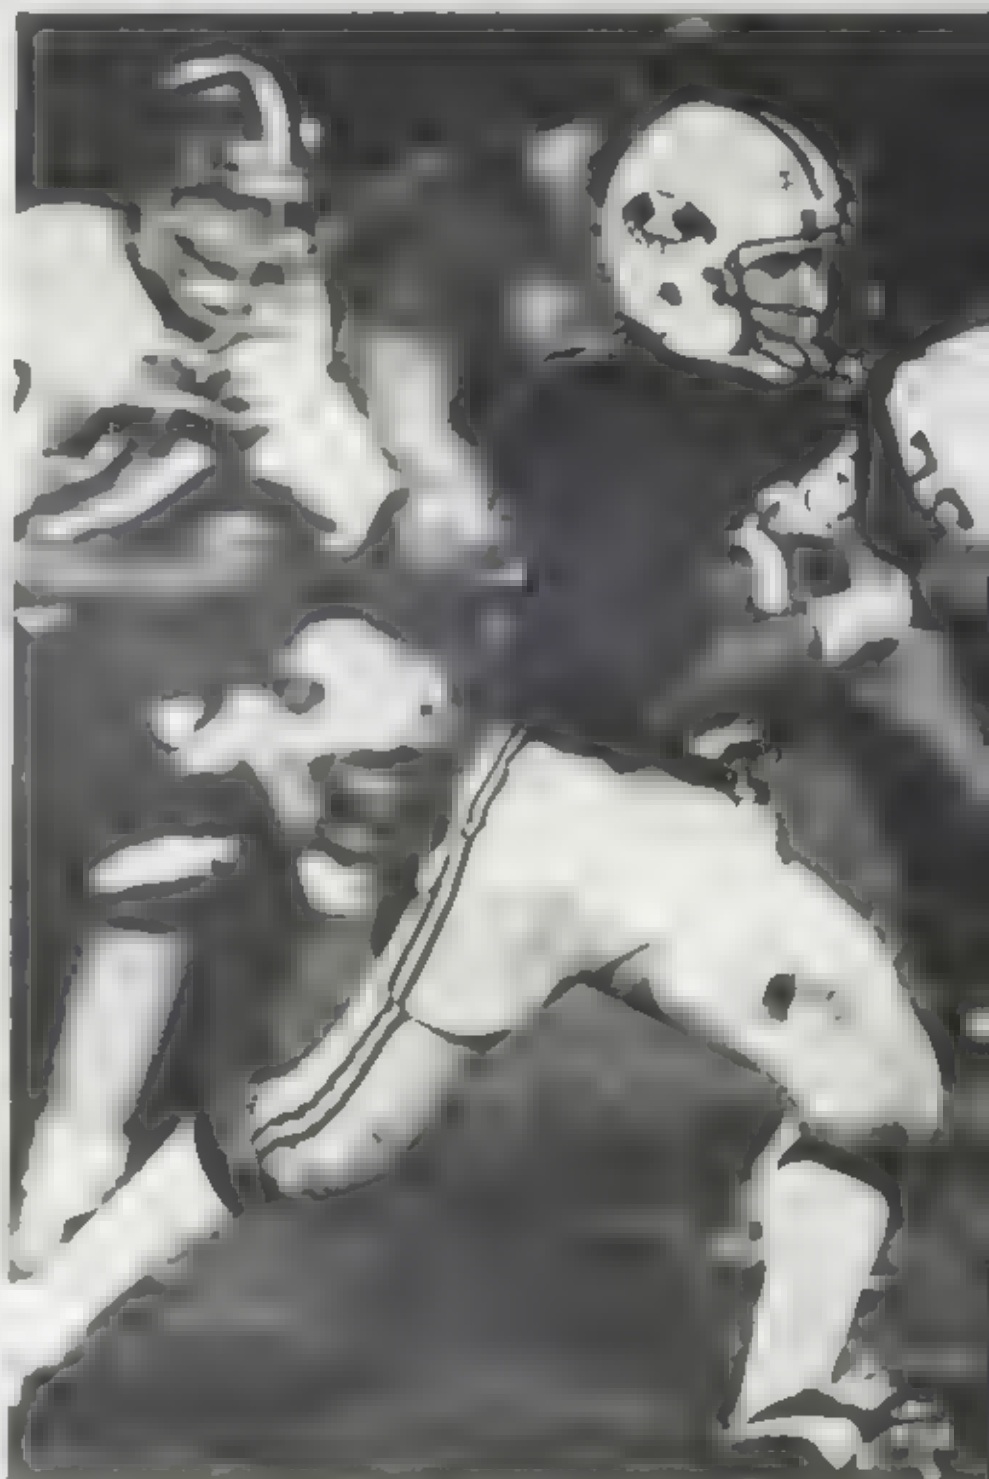

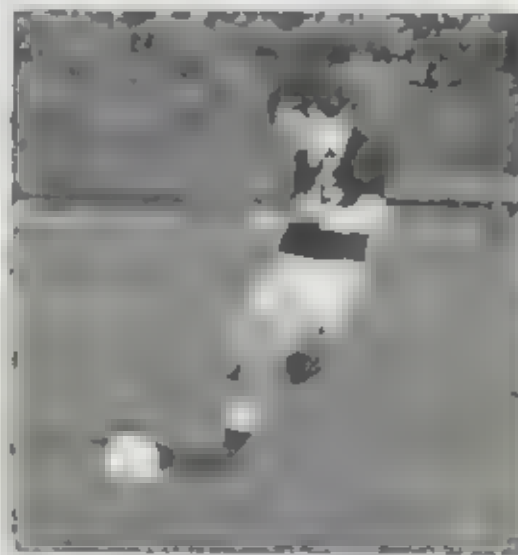

All-Stater Carta key in Bishop's Cup victory

Amedeo Carta, on the strength of his speed and agility, became Mr. McHugh's 20th player in the past 16 years to receive All-State honors. Carta, a three year varsity letterman, rushed for 1398 yards this season on only 254 carries for a 5.5 yard average. In a come-from-behind victory over Northwest Catholic, Carta covered a record 244 yards and tallied both T.D.'s, which earned him Player of the Week status.

In another outstanding effort, Carta ran for 103 yards as the Falcons defeated a tough St. Bernard squad to gain the Bishop's Cup title. In that game, Charlie Gatland's three second half interceptions proved crucial in depriving a charged St. Bernard offense from a last minute victory.

Falcon booters taste success in second year

The 1980 Xavier varsity soccer team, finishing their season with a 9-7-2 record, claimed the title of "Middletown City Champions." The Falcon booters were paced offensively by junior Jay Wolter, sophomore Paul Feeney, and tri-captain Brian Feeney. The offense was also supported by Mike Casparino, Bill Kiey, and freshman Joe Thomas. The defense, which assistant coach King considered the most outstanding facet of this year's team, was led by senior tri-captains Steve Pitruzzello and John Flaherty.

Xavier soccer team wins City Championship

The Xavier soccer team won a hard fought battle for the City Championship this year. Xavier won its first three City Series games against Wilson, Middletown High, and the Vinal defending champs. The last three games proved to be more difficult for the Falcons. Xavier tied Vinal and Middletown but lost to Wison in a well played game. Xavier won the championship with a 3-1-2 record.

This season, John Flaherty became Xavier's first All-State soccer player. Flaherty was also selected for the All-HCC team, along with Brian Feeney, Hugh O'Gorman, Tom Murphy, Steve Pitruzzello and Jay Wolter. John Flaherty was also honored by the coaches as he received the Senior Award and the title of Defensive Player of the Year. Also honored were Brian Feeney, Offensive Player of the Year, and Hugh O'Gorman, Rookie of the Year.

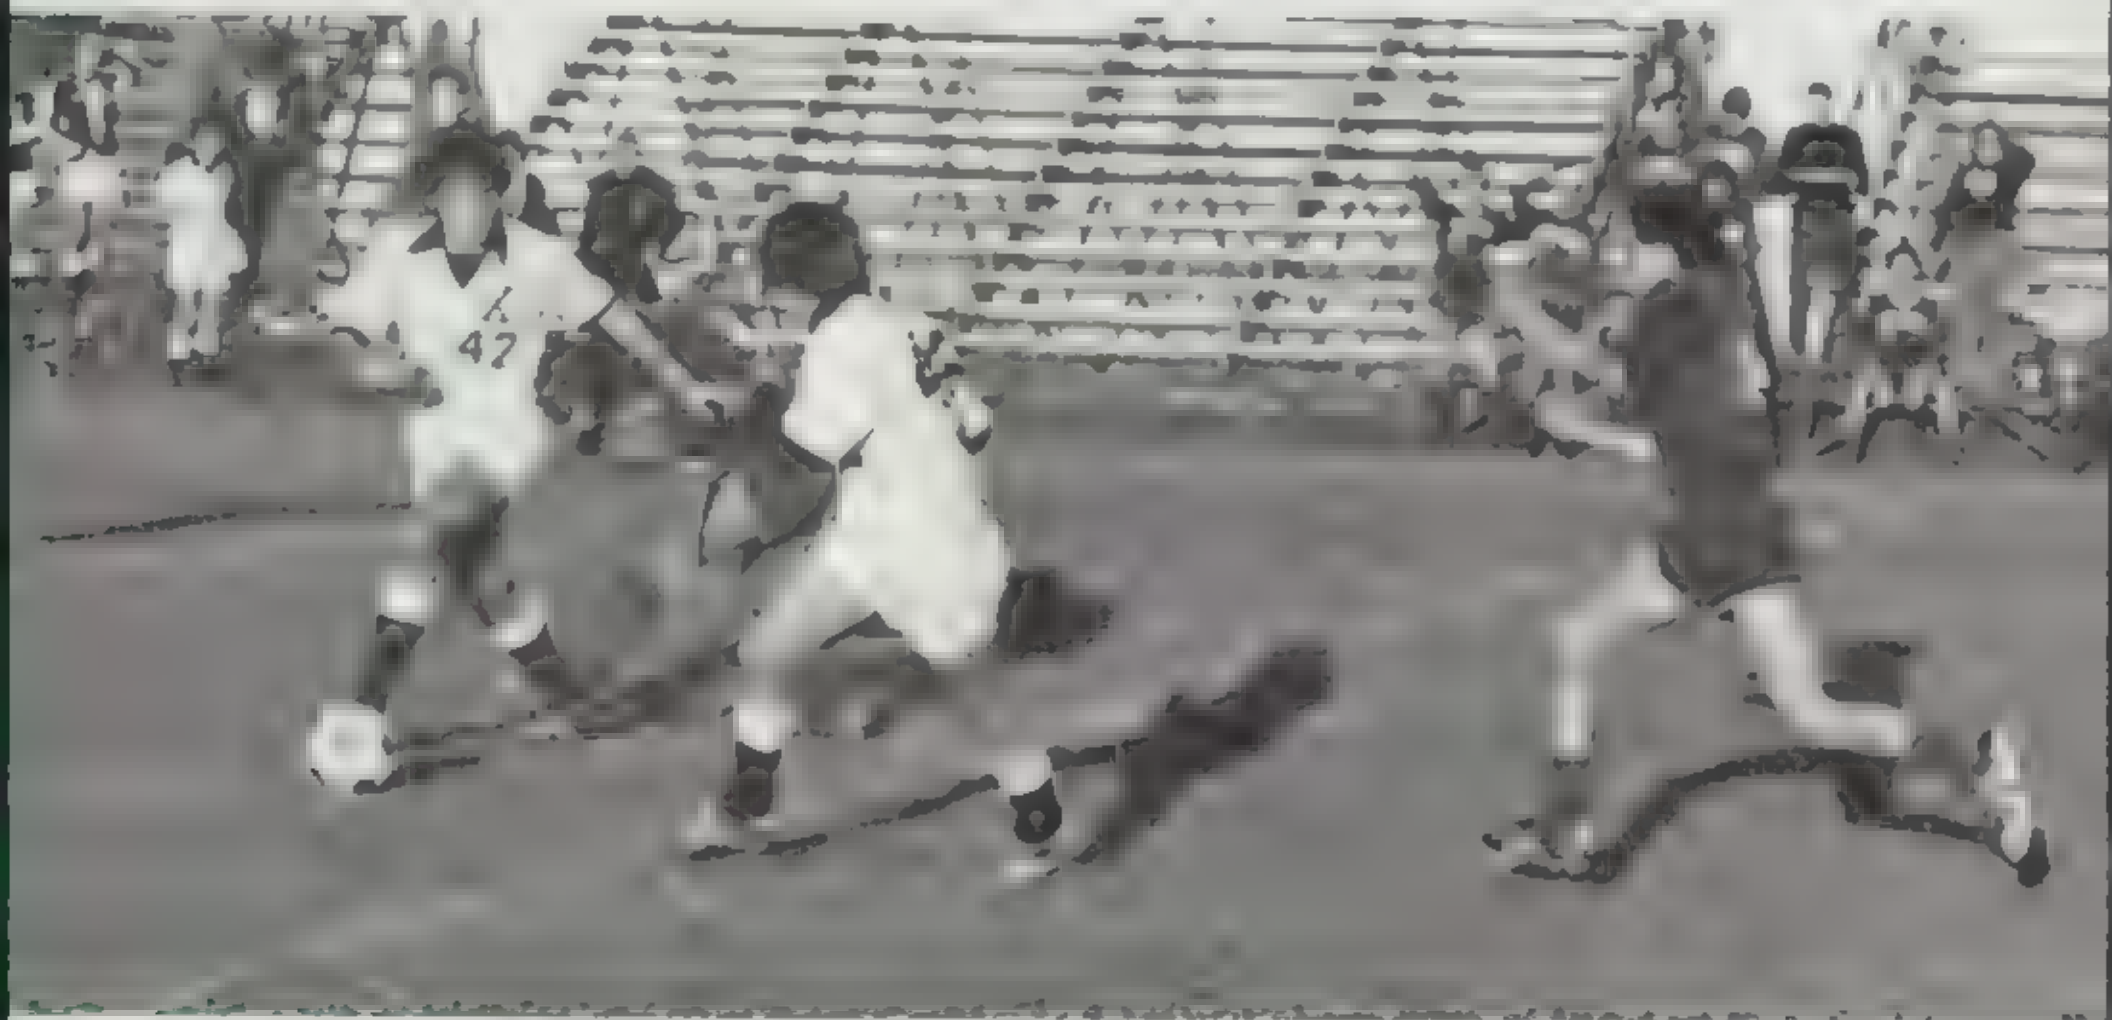

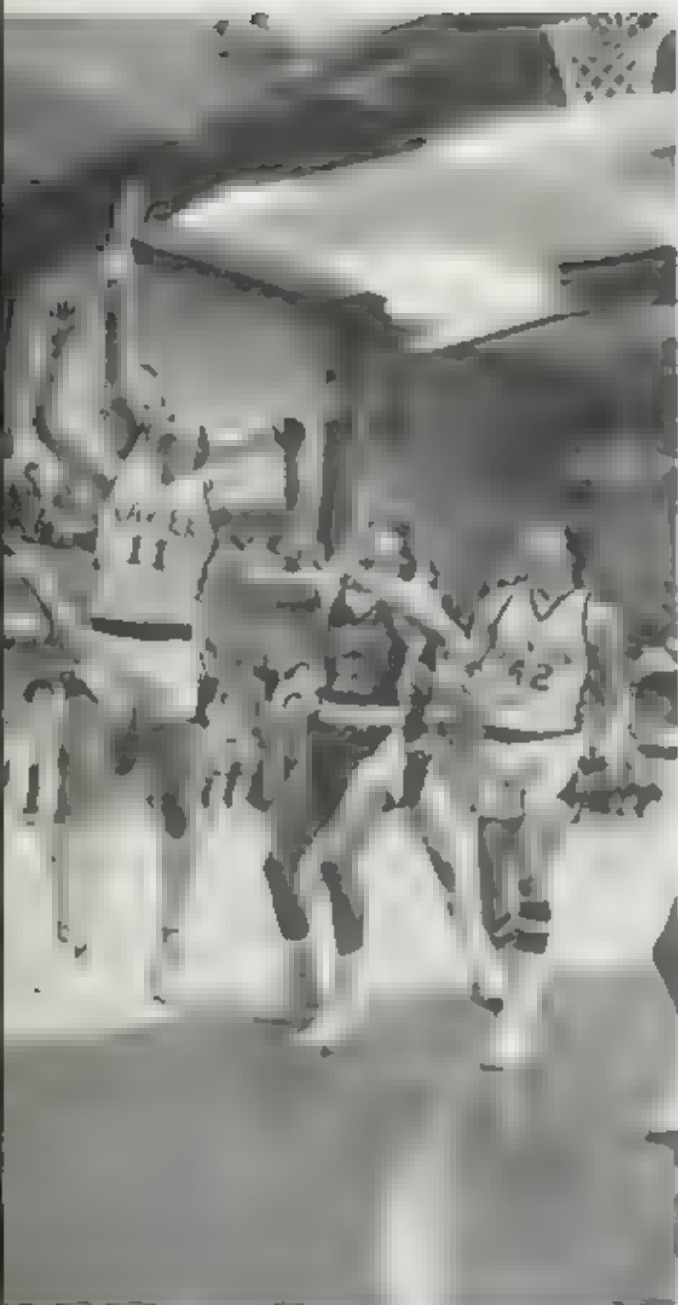

Falcons make play-offs

In only its second year of existence, the Xavier soccer team entered the state championship tourney. The Falcons, ranked 22nd at the onset of the tournament, were opposed by 13th ranked Foran High School in the opening round of play. Xavier opened the scoring on a goal by Bill Kalin. After a Foran goal, Brian Feeney scored on a penalty kick, and Xavier started the second half with a 2-1 lead. Foran was unable to comeback, and the Falcon booters won their first playoff game.

The second round proved less fortunate for the Falcons as they were held scoreless by Joel Barlow High of Redding and eventually lost the contest 4-0. Although Xavier was unable to advance past the second round, both their play-off berth and the performance of many of the young Falcons left the coaches and team confident about next season.

Underclassmen spark varsity basketball team

The varsity basketball picture brightened immensely this past year as the Falcons improved their record to 6 and 14 with a young squad. The team, coached by Mr. Magner, with assistants Tom Morrison and Ted Hermann, rolled up impressive wins against Glastonbury (2), Vinal Notre Dame, Bristol Eastern, and St. Paul's.

Highlights of the season included the wins against St. Paul's and Bristol Eastern, and tough losses to St. Paul's and St. Thomas Aquinas. Junior Tom Patton keyed the win over St. Paul's as he scored six fourth quarter points in leading the Falcons from a 41-34 third quarter deficit to a 49 to 45 victory.

The win over Bristol Eastern belonged to senior Todd "Woody" Kohs. Woody first hit a basket to pull Xavier within two points with twenty-five seconds remaining. After Patton drew a charge to get the ball back, the Falcs passed it around until they found Woody at the top of the key. He sank the jumper as time expired, and Xavier prevailed 45 to 44.

The loss to St. Paul's was bitter indeed. Xavier trailed by seventeen going into the fourth quarter, but got as close as two with thirty seconds to play, only to lose 63 to 59. Junior Dave Dunn had seventeen fourth quarter points. The loss to Aquinas was also bitter. It came three nights after a blowout loss at home to the Saints. Once again the Falcs were down going into the final stanza, this time by fourteen. Kohs scored ten points in the final eight minutes as Xavier pulled to within three, at one point. The final tally was 69 to 65.

All in all it was a good season. Senior-co-captains Gary Richo and Charlie Galland provided a good deal of leadership. Kohs, Dunn, Patton, junior Jeff Billings, and sophomore Steve Randazzo all had a fine year. Commented coach Magner, "We had very little experience returning, so our team was new to varsity competition. We play a tough schedule with three of our opponents going to the State finals (Bristol Eastern, runner-up Class L, St. Bernard, champion Class L, and Aquinas, champion Class M). We made the state playoffs. Our defense improved, and next year we expect an even better record."

Xavier hoopsters make State Play-offs for first time in years

The 1980-81 edition of the Xavier Falcons was the first Xavier basketball team to make the state play-offs in several years. The Falcs were led by seniors Gary Richo, Charlie "G-Man" Galland, and Todd "Woody" Kohs. Also active were juniors Dave Dunn, Tom Patton, and Jeff Bilings, and sophomore Steve Randazzo.

Bilings was the Most Valuable Player and leading scorer (13.1 ppg.). Patton was voted Top Defensive Player, as he led the team in rebounding (154), charges drawn (16), and blocked shots. Kohs was the Most Improved Player and the third leading scorer (11.2 ppg.), as well as the second leading rebounder. Dunn won the Foul Shooting Award (41 for 52, 79%), led the team in recoveries, and was the second leading scorer (11.7 ppg.). Randazzo led the team in assists. Senior co-captains Richo and Galland were co-recipients of the Senior Award.

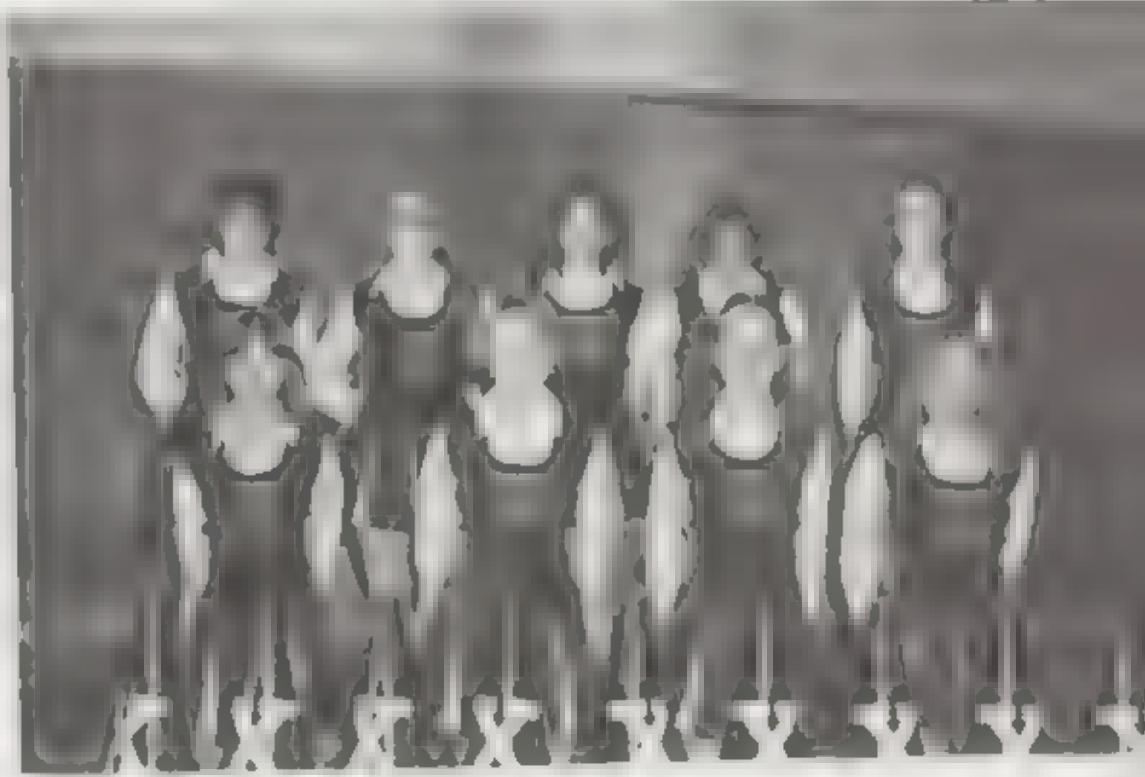

Mercy rooters inspire Falcon teams to victory

Chosen from a multitude of candidates at try-outs the previous spring, the eleven member varsity cheerleader squad had a wealth of talent. Led by senior co-captains Joanie Doherty and Tina Rutan, and moderated by Denise Pepitone, the Mercy rooters performed clever and original cheers. Their spirit, enthusiasm, and dedication inspired the Xavier football and basketball teams to victory. The highlight of the year occurred during half-time of the last home game when, after performing their "Celebration" routine, they received a standing ovation from the appreciative fans.

Swim team strokes to best season on record

Riding the wave of last year's outstanding season the swim team rallied this year for the best record (11-3) in Xavier swimming history. Coach Bob Borho credited the swimmers' success to "an incredibly dedicated group of young men. Xavier should be really proud of the group."

Freshman Charlie Nash paced the team by shattering records in the 500, 200, and 100 free style, and in the 200 I. M. Nash was awarded the Most Valuable Swimmer plaque at the team's award night. Brian Cushing took the school record in the 50 free, and the relay team of Paul Wagner, Joel Finnegan, Charlie Nash and Pat Gilbert broke the record in the 400 free relay. In state competition, a scheduling error eliminated the Falcon swimmers from participation, but diver Jeff Ballachino took 10th place in the diving event.

Flaherty and Finnegan help Falcons break jinx; win on the road

Captains John Flaherty and Joel Finnegan successfully led the Falcs in breaking last year's jinx on away meets by winning all road contests. Meaningful road victories included the win over arch-rival Haddam Killingworth, as well as the win against Fitch in the last meet of the season, which was aided by a judge's decision in the breaststroke and clinched in the last relay.

With Xavier's becoming a highly respected swim team, Coach Borho decided "champions should look like champions!", and ordered for the team what he calls "the 'bossest' swimming sweats in Connecticut."

Next year's team will be held strongly together by such outstanding swimmers as Mike Rousseau (backstroke), Mike Epright (all around), and Brian Cushing (breaststroke), as well as Charlie Nash, and Tom Cartelli, Mark Vetrano and Jeff Balachino (divers). The Falcons will feel a loss, however, in the free style and breaststroke events because of the graduation of seniors John Flaherty, John Marriot and Joel Finnigan.

Two Xavier gunners named All-Staters

Xavier juniors Craig Murphy and Tim Rumberger were selected for the All-State rifle team, the top ten scholastic shooters in Connecticut. The honors came after a very successful winter season as Xavier gunners tied Vinal Tech for the city championship.

Seniors Tom Rumberger and Kevin Larke captained the rifle squad, and coaches David Lyman and Charles Lyman were also happy with the marksmanship of junior Pete Wronski. Xavier finished fourth in the Connecticut high school match, and ended eighth of 75 teams in the state Gallery shootoff.

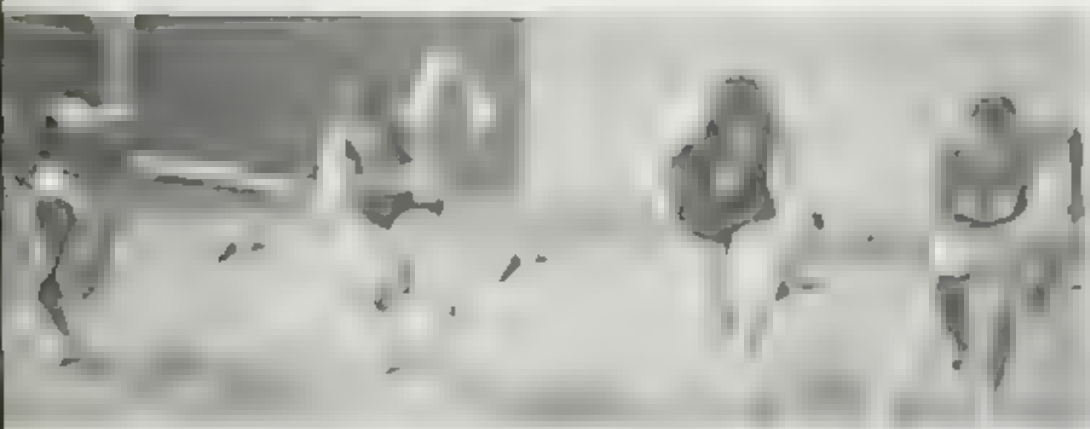

John Hinton and Pat Lefemine starred for the junior varsity shooters with Hinton posting a superlative 183 score and Lefemine a 165 against Abbott Tech.

Indoor track team is startling at 9-3

The 1980-81 Xavier Indoor Track team startled everyone with some incredible performances against superior competition. This year's squad, coached by Robert Michalski, John Chesnes and Richard Fettel, was led by senior tri-captains Ron Cozean, Rob Baker and Steve Pitruzzello and truly showed the traditional Xavier values and hardwork.

Although the team started slowly by losing to both Hartford Public and Glastonbury in a triangular meet, they recovered quickly and destroyed. In rapid succession, Waterford, Holy Cross, O'Brien Tech and St. Bernard. Xavier went on to defeat Staples, Norwalk, Weston and St. Paul before losing to a strong East Catholic team by two points. The team wound up the year 9-3.

Falcs receive awards

The most outstanding indoor track performance of the year came at the Class L Meet, Xavier losing to a superior Rippowam by only two points. Joe Swift was the Class L 1500 meter champ and set a school record at 4:11.65. Bill Gaster, who set a school record in the 300 with a time of 39.4, placed third in the Class L 1000 meters and was granted the Most Improved Award. Ron Cizean, named Most Valuable Trackman, was Class L and State Open runner-up in the 1500 meters. Captain Bob Baker earned the Senior Award. Coach Michalski described the year as "very satisfying" and a "great effort."

Trackmen celebrate 100th consecutive win

Highlights of the '81 outdoor track season included the unprecedented 100th straight dual-meet victory (the win skein is now 103 and continuing), the smashing victory in the first annual Middletown city track championship meet, and the overwhelming triumph over Xavier's great diocesan rival, St. Bernard's.

On April 28, Xavier took its 99th and 100th consecutive wins with 122.5 points against South Windsor's 49.5 points and St. Paul's 17 points. The victories were widely heralded throughout the state, and coaches Bob Michalski, Rich Feitel and John Chesnes were lauded by other area coaches and newspaper and television commentators. Falcon trackmen have not bowed in dual competition since 1973.

The St. Bernard's meet should have been close, but the Falcons swooped with determination piling up 107 points to the Saints' 47. Captain Ron Cozean took the 5000 meters in 16:00.1 with Pat Swift third. Joe Swift and Cozean nabbed first and second in the 3000 with ace St. Bernard runner Todd Renehan third. Other fine performers included John Mooz and Tom Bosh in the hurdles, Dom Cerritelli and Gary Richo in the sprints, Billy Rule in the javelin, and both Greg and Steve Pitruzzello in the high jump.

City track meet brings out best in Falc team

"The greatest thing to happen to track in Middletown" was what Coach Michalski called the city track meet held at Middletown High. When the hubbub ended, Xavier had 157 points, Class M champ Wilson had 83, Middletown, 24, and Vinal Tech., 15.

Said Wilson Coach Rich Rosek, "Every time I looked up, I was looking into a sea of black." Ron Cozean broke Xavier's 3000 meter record with an 8:51. Greg Pitruzzello won the high jump and the triple jump and was named outstanding field athlete. The 4 x 100 meter relay quartet shocked everyone with a first over the Wildcats. Dom Cerritelli contributed an upset win in the 100 meters; Tom Bosh captured the high hurdles, and Tom Cartelli topped all 1500 meter runners.

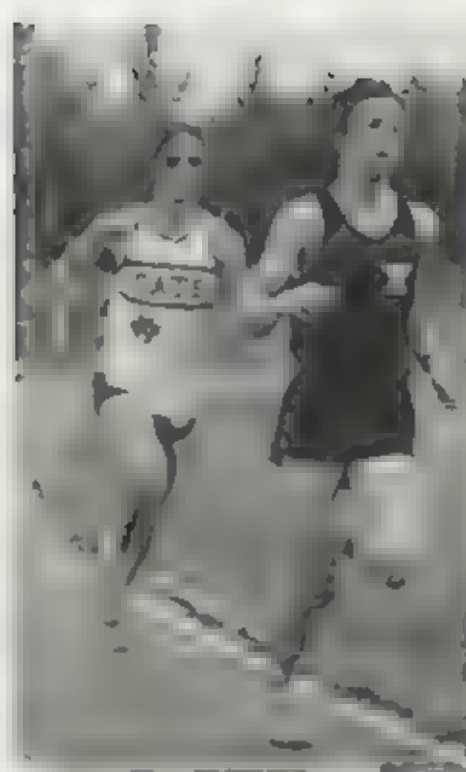

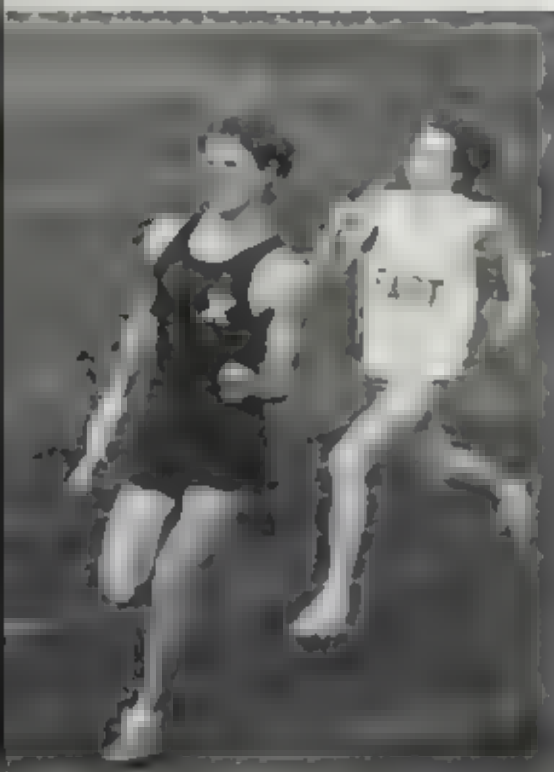

Mused Coach Michalski, "The great number of personal bests was very satisfying." And Middletown Press writer Tom Hennick observed, "There is something about a challenge that brings out the very best in a Xavier track team."

The high jumpers of the team are shown in the above photographs. The athlete in the center of the top photograph is Mike Smith, who is the state champion in the high jump. Cozean 3,000m LL Champ; Swift finishes second in State LL 5,000 event

In state competition in West Hartford, Ron Cozean ran a 9:04.22 in the 3,000 to become Class LL state champion. Joe Swift finished second in the 5,000 with Pat Swift fifth. Mike Rook was fourth in the discus, and Greg Pitruzzello sixth in the high jump. Xavier finished tenth in Class LL with 25 points.

In the State Open, Xavier tied for 27th with the six points contributed by Joe Swift's finishing third in the 5,000. At season's end, Ron Cozean won the Senior Award; Greg Pitruzzello was named Most Valuable Trackman; John Mooz was tabbed Most Improved, and Mike Rook was cited for the Desire Award.

Xavier nine go 12-9-1

"Overall it was a good year, marked by outstanding senior leadership and good performances all around," said Coach Garstka. "David Darling and Bob Scalera did great jobs as our co-captains. Charlie Galland, Randy Wall, Dave Manemert, Joe Kokoszka, and Carl Fortuna did a fine job helping out, and were real assets to our program. George Pizzi, Peter Kiefer, and Shawn Donovan also did great work for us."

"I was honored to serve as a captain," said Darling. "I think we had a good year, although we could have done better."

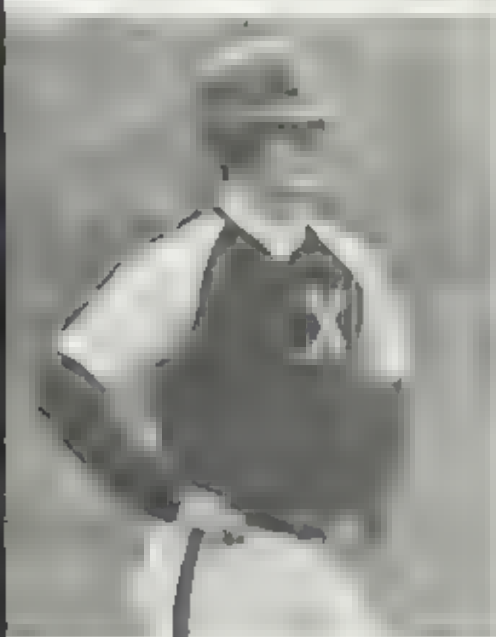

"I am glad that I had the opportunity to work with Dave," said Scalera. "I agree that we could have been better, but I was happy with our effort. We always gave a hundred percent, and never gave up."

George Pizzi led the team in batting with a .385 average. He also set a new school record with ten doubles. Randy Wall was second with a .380 average and led the club with nineteen runs batted in. Darling was third at .368 and led the team with 26 runs scored. Charlie Galland led the squad in triples (4), home runs (2), and was second in RBI's (18).

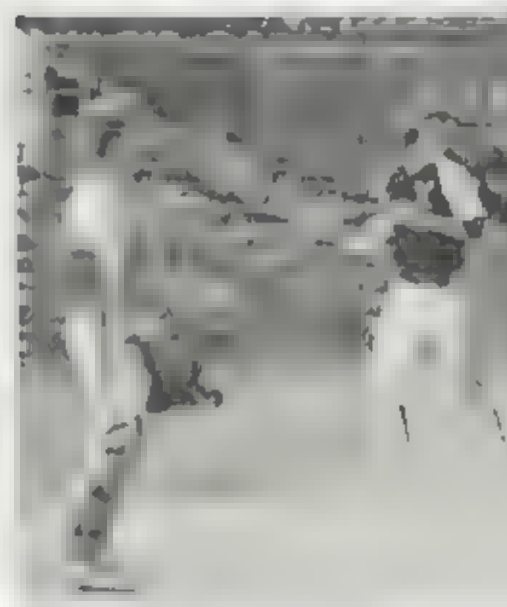

Randy Wall was also the outstanding pitcher with a five and three record and a 1.35 ERA. He struck out 62 batters in 84 innings. Shawn Donovan added four wins while Sullivan McConnell added two, and Mark Osora one.

Wall capped the season by being named to the state Class LL baseball team. Randy also was named to the H.C.C. team, as were Dave Darling, George Pizzi, and Joe Kokoszka.

Wall, Darling, Kokoszka make All-State team

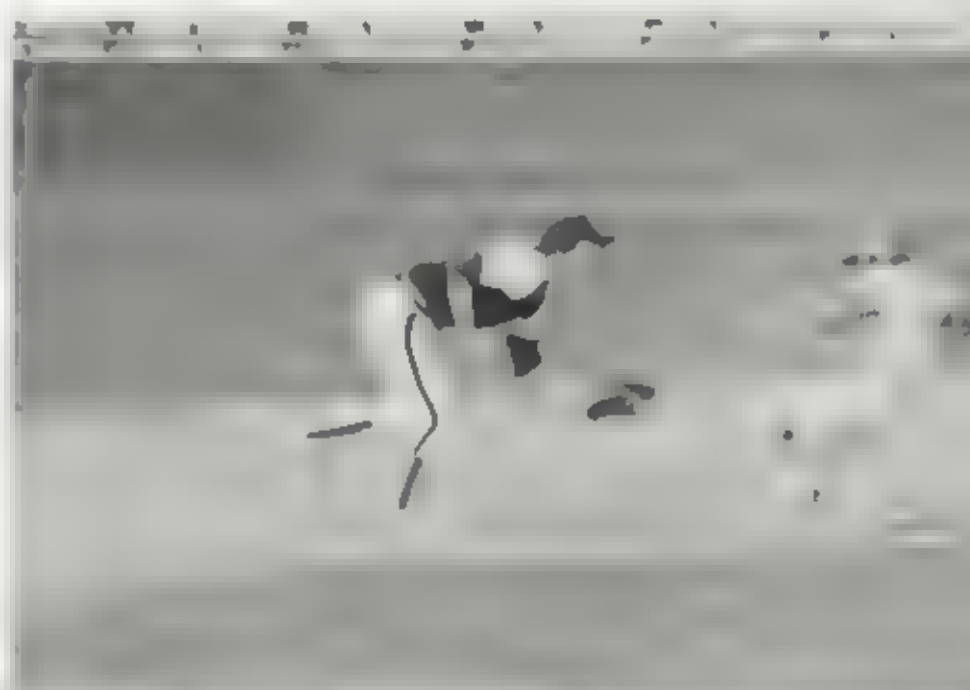

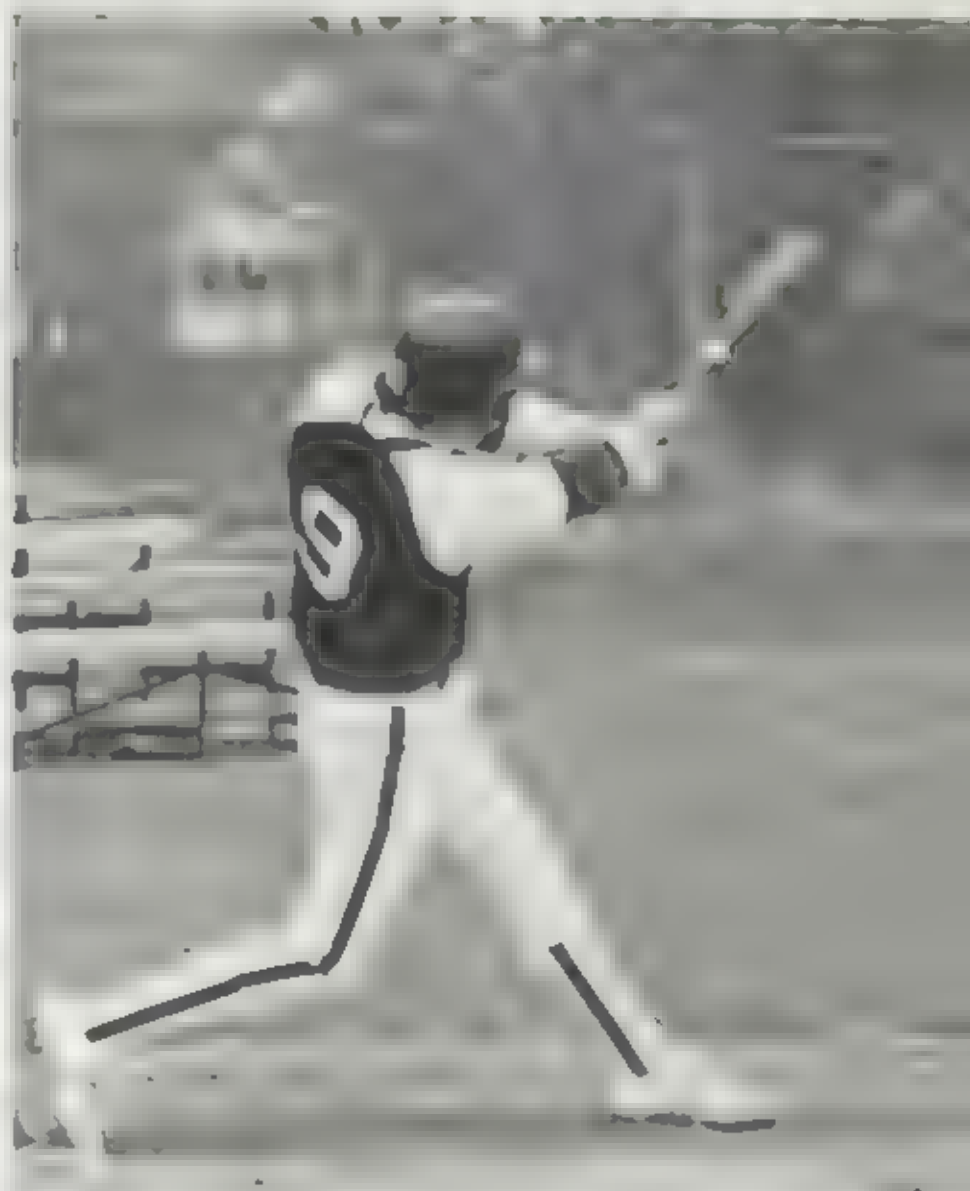

The 1981 season was one of ups and downs for the Falcons. They dropped two of their first three games to Notre Dame and East Catholic. Sandwiched in between was an exciting come from behind win over Northwest at Palmer Field. Shawn Donovan picked up the win in relief and drove in the winning run by walking with the bases loaded. Co-captain Dave Darling had a three run triple against Northwest and three hits including a homerun against East.

The St. Bernard game followed the East game and started a ten game streak in which the Falcs won nine times and tied once (at Norwich Free Academy). Randy Wall picked up five of the nine victories (against St. Bernard, St. Paul, South Catholic, and N.F.A. twice). Sullivan McConnell won twice including a fourteen strikeout performance against Aquinas. Donovan also won twice.

Big hitters during the streak included Charlie Galland, George Pizzi, Dave Darling, and Randy Wall. Galland won the first N.F.A. game with a dramatic seventh inning grand slam, and he had three hits in the South game. Pizzi had three hits in the St. Bernard game and the second Northwest game. Darling had two hits, four RBI's, and three runs scored against South. Wall had two hits in the N.F.A. tie, three in the St. Paul game, three RBI's in the second Aquinas game, and four RBI's in the second Northwest game.

The streak ended following the first Wilson game (won 10-6). The Falcs closed the year by dropping seven of their last nine, including a heartbreaking 3 to 1 game against East for the H.C.C. championship. In that game Wall pitched his heart out but was victimized by three unearned runs. Wall and Pizzi had two hits apiece.

The two wins during the fall were over St. Paul and Hand. Donovan won the game over the Bristol Falcons as Bob Scalera and Pizzi picked up three hits apiece. Mark Osora won the Hand game with Wall and Pizzi collecting two hits each.

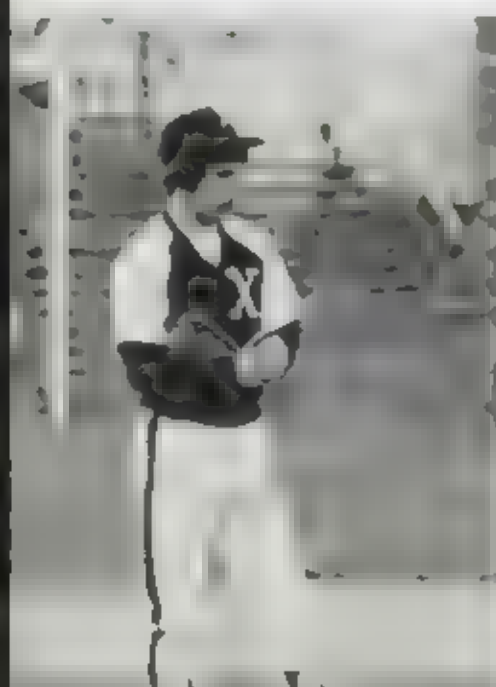

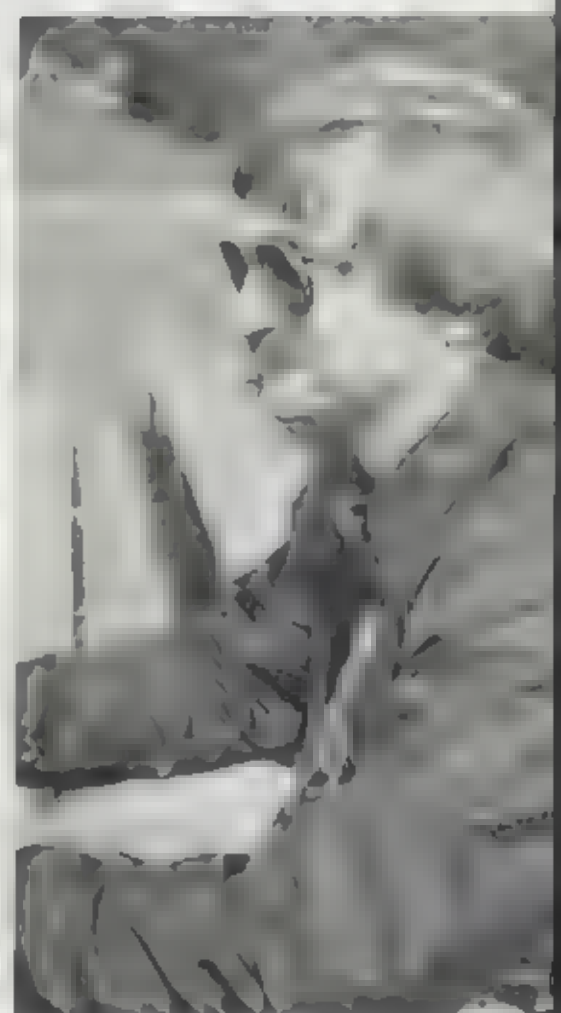

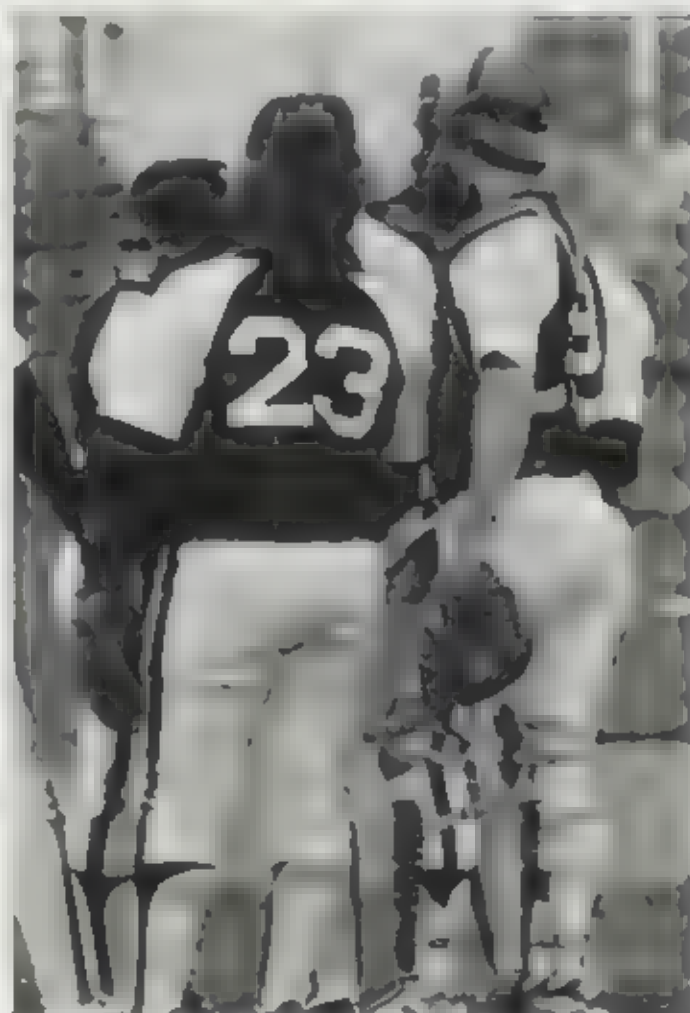

Falcons make tourney

The tournament game was a well played encounter at Palmer Field. Randy Wall and Dave Spears each pitched outstandingly. Wall surrendered but one earned run in eight and two thirds innings. Mark Osora came in on relief for the Falcs. Spears went the distance and allowed only two runs.

Charlie Galland, a clutch performer all year, was the batting star of the game. He had three hits in four trips to the plate and drove in both of the Falcon runs.

Two runs were not enough for the Falcs, though. The Indians picked up three runs in the fourth on a home run, and two more in the ninth, for the five to two final. Xavier refused to give up. The Falcs loaded the bases in the bottom of the eighth and put a man on in the ninth, but they could not push a run across.

14-1 Netmen nab HCC championship, finish 3rd in Class L play

Xavier's best tennis team walloped St. Paul's 6-1 to snare the HCC championship after a sparkling 14-1 season. In state Class L tourney play in New Haven, Xavier finished third. Frosh sensation Kevin Joyce went unbeaten in seasonal singles matches, and polished off three tournament foes before bowing to New Canaan's second-ranked Andy Kinney in the Class L semis.

Doubles aces Pete Curran and Brian Feeney also fought their way to the L semifinals where they lost to a New Canaan duo 3-6, 6-0, 6-2. Seniors Theo Stein and Feeney captained the squad and played second and third singles. Junior Pete Curran finished 16-4. Other top-flight netmen included doubles stars Joby Cunningham and Doug Apicella (both 10-3) and Stuart Shanus and Tom Lambe.

Smiled Coach Bob Borha, "It was a great season. We hope for even better things next year."

Pellatt shoots school record 67; golfers finish second in HCC

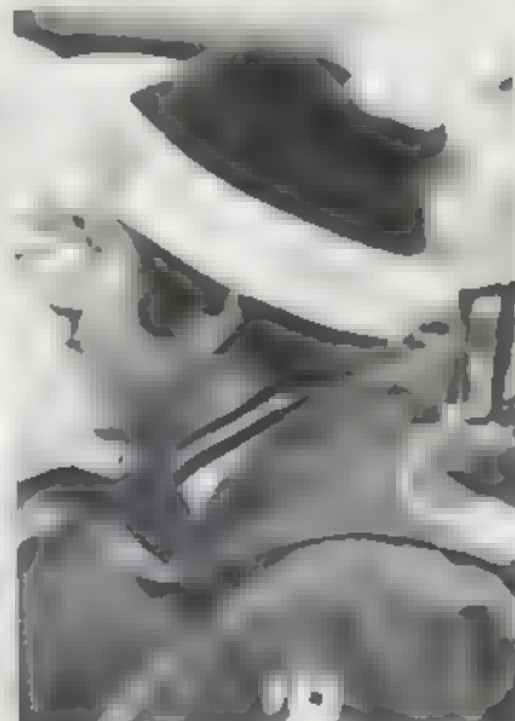

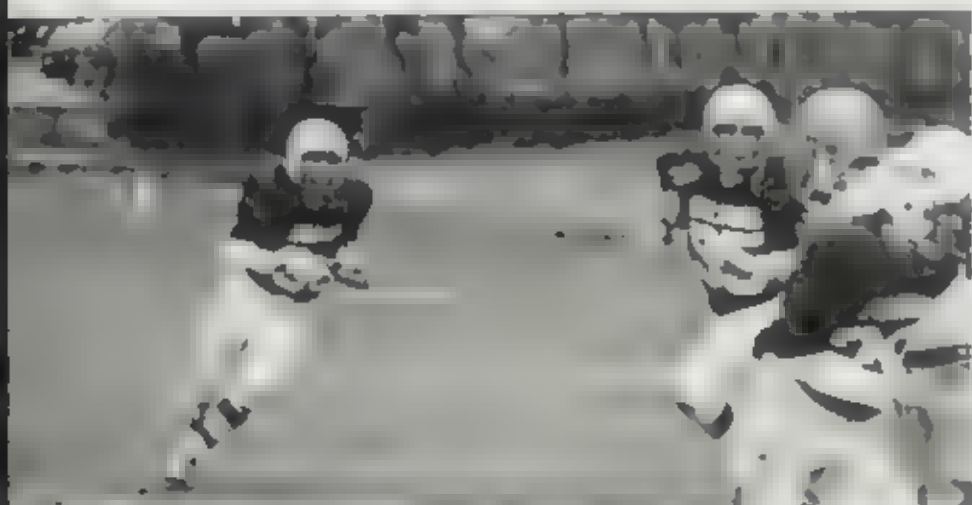

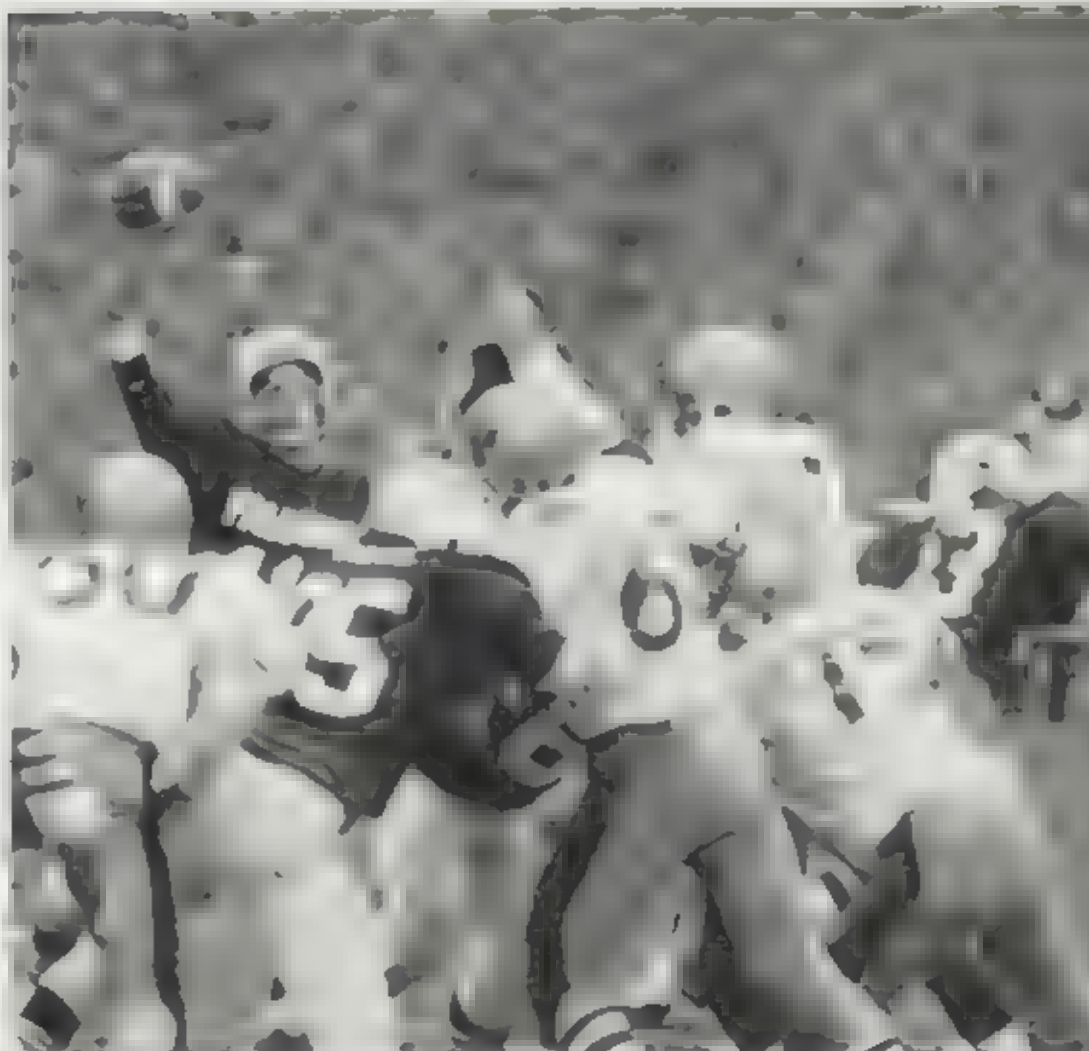

The Xavier Falcons golf team finished the year 15-5, and 7-2 in the HCC. The team started well, winning its first nine matches before failing to Notre Dame and losing three of its next six competitions. The team finished runner-up to St. Paul's in the HCC standings and in the league tournament. The team also finished fourth in the State Tourney with a four man score of 334, which was the best performance ever by a Xavier team in the state competition.

The most valuable golfer was Kevin Keley who finished with the second highest average of the team. The top average was turned in by Senior Award Winner Tom Pellatt. Pellatt set the school record by four strokes with a 67 at the Portland golf course. Jeff Schroeder was named Best Performing Freshman, while Micheal Conlan was the Most Promising Freshman.

Next year's team will start off fresh as four varsity members will be leaving the club. Three are graduating, and one, Keley, is leaving Xavier.

JV Football

Xavier's J.V. football team closed the season with a 22-12 victory over arch rival Hand of Madison to finish with a 6-4 record. Don Cerritelli, Bruce Micale and Greg Richo were key offensive players on this year's squad. Other offensive stars included Joe Lentini and Tim McGuire. The defense was led by Joe Flynn, Todd Roberts and John Volpe. They received additional support from Marc DeCantillon, Paul Kostacopoulos and Joe Znkiewicz.

Fresh Football

Xavier's freshman football team wound up the year with a 1-5-1 record, the lone victory being a 30-6 blowout over St. Paul. St. Bernard was the only other team on the fresh schedule unable to beat the Falcons. They played to a 0-0 tie in Juncosville. The team was led by captains Sal Pepitone and Nick De Felice. Other key performers were Joey Barona, Mike Hayer, John Micolett, Erich Bauer and Ron Muskatello.

Frosh Cross Country

This year's frosh cross country team showed much potential, proving to be one of the finest undersquad teams that Xavier has ever produced. Many individual performances high-lighted the season. The top seven freshmen ran extremely well in their four major invitations; they also gave fine performances on their home course.

Greg Bonaiuto led the team, winning three out of four invitations, with Peter Fickinger finishing close behind in each of these. Fickinger also captured the Xavier freshmen home course record and led the team in the final invitational with a sixth place finish. The returning team should have a fine sophomore season to continue the Xavier winning tradition.

JV Basketball

The jayvee basketball team posted a 14-6 record in an exciting season. Roger Madero led the facts in scoring with a 17.1 per game average while Mike Muzio earned praise for his role as the top rebounder and second leading scorer. The team was paced by the back court leadership of sophomores Steve Randazzo, and Carl Scandura. The jayvee hoopsters were coached by Tom Morrison.

Freshman Basketball

The 1980-81 freshman hoop team finished the year with a 10-10 record. The frosh's season was highlighted by a four game win streak. The team also did well in the Xavier Freshman Invitational by blowing out Valley Regional 111-50 before dropping to South Catholic in double overtime. The team was led by highscorer Jeff Muzio and Jim Goulet, who was named Most Valuable Player. Other award winners were Bob Fritz who won the Freshman Award and Bill Brown, named Most Improved.

Novas roll to crown

Every Monday, from October to April, Xavier's Keglers traverse across town to Middletown Lanes for weekly competition. This year's faculty team consisting of Mr. Boucher, Bro. Dave Eddy and Fr. Charles LeBlanc proved to be challenging but not challenging enough.

This year's first place team, the Novas, easily defeated all opposition for top honors. Moderator Mr. Boucher, assuming Bro. Pawlika's old job, used the dues totaling over one-hundred and thirty dollars for trophies. Keglers paid twenty-five cents a week in order to pay for the trophies. Officers for this year were treasurer Shaun Herness, and secretary Steve Salemi.

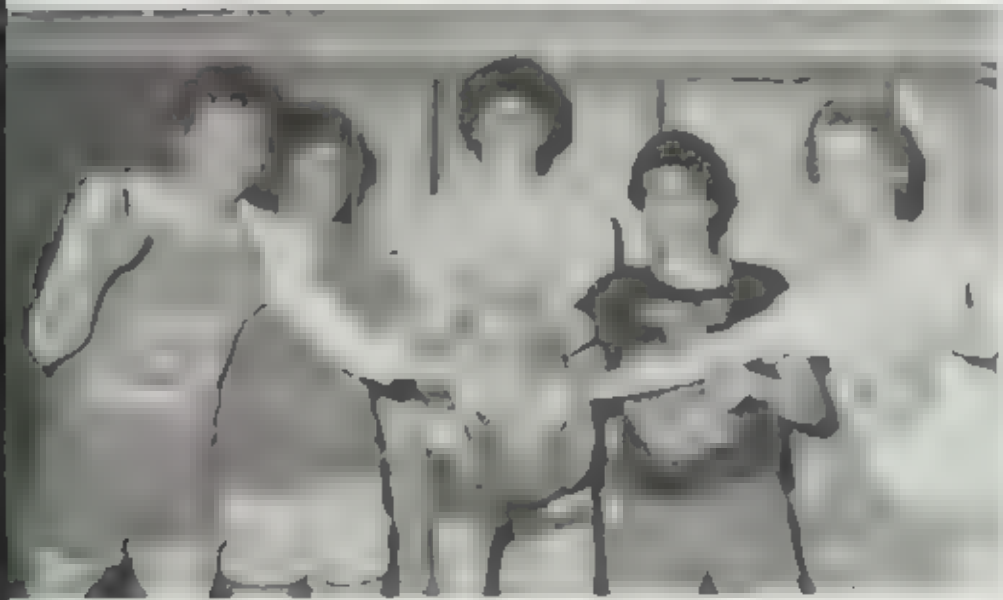

Intramurals

Xavier High School scheduled a full slate of intramural sports this year. The spring session of basketball was won by Ken Petzold's senior team. There were also winter sessions of racquetball, ping pong and tennis.

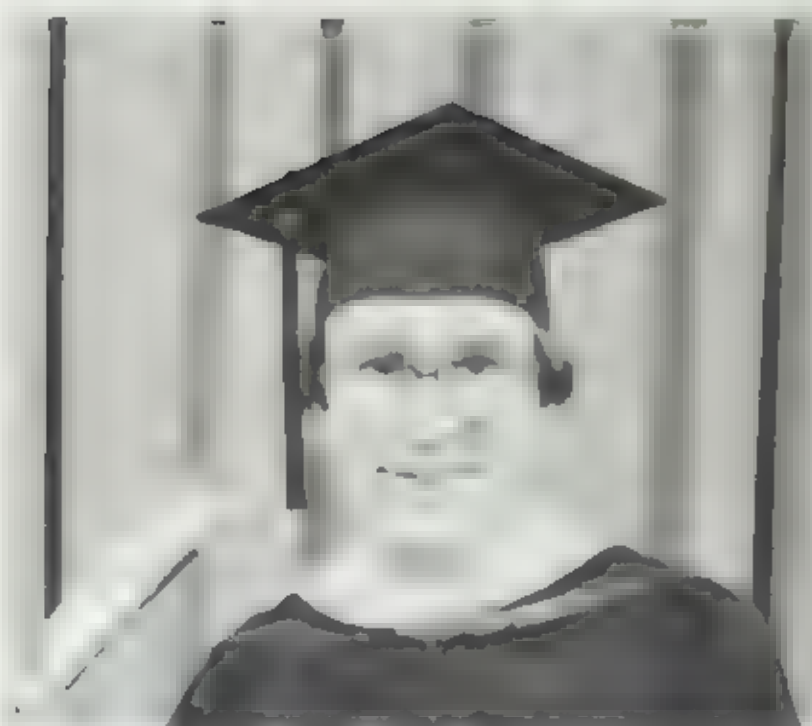

Roger Lussier won the racquetball, and Peter Curran and Brian Feeney won the tennis crown. The fall session of racquetball was won by junior Peter Turgeon.

MOVIN' INTO THE FUTURE

Today we start a new life, we bid our last good byes To all the friends we've made, the ones with whom we've shared and need remember the fun and games, our problems & our fears. Together we survived them all throughout our high school years.

We have memories of the pranks & games of the friends we've met, of all those teachers working, and exams we'd rather forget. The mornings spent at Merry Town with the girls, it seemed to be the better of our two worlds.

Part of me just wants to stay, and part of me says no. I wish which part I'll listen to, does anybody know?

I wish I had the answers, I wish I could know, so when I sit the future, I know which way to go.

We're moving on now, we can't live in the past. It will stay with us though, our memories, and forever I will last. We're moving into the future, we just can't stop by. We're moving into the future, we'll give it all a try.

Part of me just wants to stay, and part of me says no. Ooh, which part I'll listen to, does anybody know? Yes, now I have the answers, on which path to follow. Yes, now I meet the future. — music & lyrics by Joseph Murdock Jr.
